Galatians 3:10-14
Understanding What It Means to be Cursed

[10]For as many as are of the works of the Law are under a curse; for it is written, "CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO DOES NOT ABIDE BY ALL THINGS WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF THE LAW, TO PERFORM THEM." [11]Now that no one is justified by the Law before God is evident; for, "THE RIGHTEOUS MAN SHALL LIVE BY FAITH." [12]However, the Law is not of faith; on the contrary, "HE WHO PRACTICES THEM SHALL LIVE BY THEM." [13]Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us—for it is written, "CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO HANGS ON A TREE"—[14]in order that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we would receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Next Sunday, July 31st

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Affirmation of Faith
Westminster Confession of Faith: Chapter 20, Paragraph 1

Christ has purchased for believers under the gospel freedom from the guilt of sin,
from the condemning wrath of God,
and from the curse of the moral law.
He has also freed them from the evil world we live in,
from enslavement to Satan, from the dominion of sin,
the evil of afflictions, the sting of death, the victory of the grave,
and from everlasting damnation.
In Christ believers have free access to God and can obey Him,
not out of slavish fear,
but with a childlike love and a willing mind.

DAB - Young Adult Ministry

But Why?

It probably wouldn't take you a lot of time to identify questions you would want to ask God, but would it surprise you to know that God has a few questions for us too.

This summer we will be looking at the questions God has for us and the questions we have of God. The very idea that God enters into dialogue with us through his Word is an astonishing truth. It separates Him from all the other false gods and makes him worthy of our praise.
