

it's time to engage

- The enemy is _____ that land in the part of our brain that has ideas or imagines. In that part of our brain, we take what is _____ and create what we _____ to be true.
- All it takes for evil to prevail is for godly men and women to _____ the _____ and do nothing.
- "But let us do what we will, we shall be tempted. God had one son without sin, but he never had a son without temptation."
Spurgeon
- Spiritual _____ are spiritual _____.
- Silence and solitude were not a break from the _____, it was the field on which the battle was _____.

Out of silence and solitude, the mind of Christ recognizes the enemy's lies, speaks the truth over the lie, and lives in freedom.

Where have we allowed the lie to become truth and what scripture would defeat that lie?
