Easter Egg Hunt Is Coming

Candy donations (no chocolate) are now being collected for our Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, March 28th beginning at 1:00. If you'd like to help sweeten the day, please bring individually wrapped candy. Drop your donations in the basket in the vestibule and help us make sure every egg has a sweet surprise inside.

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

Thank you to everyone who has already given to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. So far, $710 has been received. We are grateful for your generosity and your heart for supporting North American missions. Please continue to pray about how the Lord would lead you to give.

Wanderer's Trip

Since we missed our outing last month, the Wanderers are ready to wander again—this time to Logan's in Fort Oglethorpe. Join us Thursday night, March 19th, as we make up for the missed meal with food and even better fellowship. The church van will depart at 5:00. Be sure to put your name on the reservation list.

March Monthly Scripture

*"O Lord, You are my God. I will exalt You, I will praise Your name, For You have done wonderful things; Your counsels of old are faithfulness and truth."
Isaiah 25:1 NKJV*

Clay Balls

A man was exploring caves by the seashore. In one of the caves, he found a canvas bag with a bunch of hardened clay balls. It was like someone had rolled clay balls and left them out in the sun to bake. They didn't look like much, but they intrigued the man, so he took the bag out of the cave with him. As he strolled along the beach, he would throw the clay balls one at a time out into the ocean as far as he could. He thought little about it, until he dropped one of the clay balls and it cracked open on a rock. Inside was a beautiful, precious stone! Excited, the man started breaking open the remaining clay balls. Each contained a similar treasure. He found thousands of dollars' worth of jewels in the 20 or so clay balls he had left. Then it struck him. He had been on the beach a long time. He had thrown maybe 50 or 60 of the clay balls with their hidden treasure into the ocean waves. Instead of thousands of dollars in treasure, he could have taken home tens of thousands, but he had just thrown it away!

It's like that with people. We look at someone, maybe even ourselves, and we see the external clay vessel. It doesn't look like much from the outside.

It isn't always beautiful or sparkling, so we discount it. We see that person as less important than someone more beautiful or stylish or well known or wealthy, but we have not taken the time to find the treasure hidden inside that person.

There is a treasure in each one of us. If we take the time to get to know that person, and if we ask God to show us that person the way He sees them, then the clay begins to peel away and the brilliant gem begins to shine forth.

May we not come to the end of our lives and find out that we have thrown away a fortune in friendships because the gems were hidden in bits of clay.

May we see the people in our world as God sees them.
