Law Enforcement & First Responders

This Sunday we pause to express our heartfelt gratitude to the brave men and women in our community who serve as law enforcement officers, firefighters, EMT's, paramedics and all first responders. Day and night, they stand ready to protect, rescue, and care for others – often at great personal sacrifice. We thank God for those who serve with courage and compassion. May the Lord protect them, strengthen their families, and bless them richly for their faithful service.

Called To Serve

*When sirens pierce the dark of nights,
When chaos breaks the calm,
You answer with courageous hearts
And steady, willing arms.
You stand between the storm and us,
Between the fear and flame,
Choosing daily sacrifice
Without a thought of fame.
With watchful eyes and servant hands,
With compassion strong and true,
You carry burdens not your own
So others may pass through.
We thank our God for each of you –
For bravery, grace, and care,
For every unseen, quiet prayer
You whisper in despair.
“Blessed are the peacemakers,”
Our Lord has gently said,
May He surround you with His peace
Wherever you are led.
Protected by His mighty hand,
Strengthened from above –
May you feel the church's gratitude
And our enduring love.*
