Dwelling and Deliverance

Main Idea: The Lord is known in how (1) He dwells with His people; and (2) how He delivers (rescues) them.

1. The Lord's Presence (Exodus 13:17-22)

    a. The Lord knows His people and leads them "the long way."

    b. The Lord is a relational God who is physically present with His people in the pillars of cloud and fire.

    c. The Lord's presence does not depart.

2. The Lord's Deliverance (Exodus 14:1-31)

    a. The setting (Exodus 14:1-3)

    b. The purpose (Exodus 14:4)

    c. The means (Exodus 14:5-9)

    d. The people's response (Exodus 14:10-12)

    e. Moses' response (Exodus 14:13-14)

    f. The Lord restates His purpose (Exodus 14:18) – The LORD is acting; Moses is the mediator; the Israelites trust

    g. The Deliverance (the parting of the Red Sea)

        The Egyptians know it is the Lord who is delivering the Israelites (Exodus 14:25)

        The Israelites saw, feared and believed (Exodus 14:30-31)

    h. The Lord's sovereign provision is on display in how the Lord delivered His people

        Personal story regarding the Lord's sovereign provision in my life

3. The People's Response (Exodus 15:1-21) – The Song of Moses

    a. Israel is able to worship the Lord because they know who He is and what He's done

b. The Lord's Character

c. Delivered FROM but also Delivered TO (Exodus 15:17-18): to dwell with Him on His mountain, the place the Lord has made/holy abode/dwelling!

4. Concluding thoughts– I ought to care about what God cares about
