We Prepare to Hear God's Word

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Look deep, loving God, and see us as we really are. We are a people who prefer our will to your will. We focus on things of the self and give little thought or care to others. We wander through our days giving little thought to our own discipleship, let alone our call to help others become disciples. Forgive us, God of grace. Forgive us and set us again on the path of your righteousness. Amen.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon

L: Hear the Good news: Who is in a position to condemn us?

P: Only Christ.

L: And Christ died for us, Christ rose for us.

P: Christ reigns in power for us. Christ prays for us.

L: Friends, believe the Good News of the Gospel.

P: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

*Gloria Patri

#807 (Red Hymnal)

*Affirmation of Faith:

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord:

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried;
the third day he rose from the dead;

he ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God
the Father Almighty;

from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Scriptures for Today's Service

New Testament Lesson (NRSV)

Colossians 3:12-15

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. <sup>13</sup> Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.

<sup>14</sup> Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. <sup>15</sup> And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful.

1 Thessalonians 3:12

<sup>12</sup> And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you.

1 Peter 4:8

<sup>8</sup> Above all, maintain constant love for one another, for love covers a multitude of sins.

Old Testament Lesson: Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31 (NRSV)

The Gifts of Wisdom

<sup>1</sup> Does not wisdom call and understanding raise her voice?
<sup>2</sup> On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;
<sup>3</sup> beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
<sup>4</sup> “To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all who live.

Wisdom's Part in Creation

<sup>22</sup> “The Lord created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.
<sup>23</sup> Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
<sup>24</sup> When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water.
<sup>25</sup> Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth, <sup>26</sup> when he had not yet made earth and fields
or the world's first bits of soil.
<sup>27</sup> When he established the heavens, I was there;
when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, <sup>28</sup> when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep, <sup>29</sup> when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth, <sup>30</sup> then I was beside him, like a master worker,
and I was daily his delight, playing before him always,
<sup>31</sup> playing in his inhabited world
and delighting in the human race.

Everything longed for in this text is a reminder of how far our present world is from what God wants. Yet this is not just wishful thinking; it is a call to action, a summons to participate in the fulfillment of God's desire for all earth's people to live in radical shalom.

This text and this tune occur in almost all English-language hymnals (though not always together). The transforming power of love motivates the unending praise of the life to come, and this fine Welsh tune (whose name means "delightful") gives us a foretaste of endless song.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lower staff is in bass clef. The music is written in a style typical of 18th-century hymn tunes, with a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes and rests. The lyrics are printed below the staves, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes.

The second system of music also consists of two staves in the same key signature and clefs as the first system. The melody continues with similar rhythmic patterns. The lyrics conclude with a double bar line at the end of the system.

Written for an easy-to-sing folk melody familiar in England as well as Wales, this 20th-century North American text bears many resemblances to both Psalm 148 and the traditional canticle Benedicite, omnia opera Domini (Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord).

A parish priest at St. Brendan's on the South Side of Chicago in the 1960s was very involved in the local Civil Rights movement and needed something for his youth choir to sing at ecumenical, interracial events. Finding nothing, he wrote this song in a single day.
