We Prepare to Hear God's Word

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Loving and merciful God, we confess that, like our ancestors before us, we complain when things do not go our way. We want abundance of everything rather than what you sufficiently give us. We would rather be elsewhere than where we are at the moment. When things don't go our way, we ask where you are. We fail to recognize your constant presence. Forgive our lack of trust and doubt. Renew us in your love. Amen.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon

L: People of God, know that God is greater than our hearts.

P: All who obey God's commandments abide in God, just as God abides in us.

L: Friends, believe the Good News of the Gospel.

P: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

*Gloria Patri

#807 (Red Hymnal)

*Affirmation of Faith:

The Nicene Creed, #15

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in the one holy catholic and apostolic church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Scriptures for Today's Service

First Scripture Lesson: Exodus 16:1-12 (NRSV)

Bread from Heaven

¹ The whole congregation of the Israelites set out from Elim and came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had departed from the land of Egypt. ² The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. ³ The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of meat and ate our fill of bread, for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger." ⁴ Then the Lord said to Moses, "I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not. ⁵ On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days." ⁶ So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, "In the evening you shall know that it was the Lord who brought you out of the land of Egypt, ⁷ and in the morning you shall see the glory of the Lord, because he has heard your complaining against the Lord. For what are we, that you complain against us?" ⁸ And Moses said, "When the Lord gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the Lord has heard the complaining that you utter against him—what are we? Your complaining is not against us but against the Lord." ⁹ Then Moses said to Aaron, "Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites: 'Draw near to the Lord, for he has heard your complaining.' " ¹⁰ And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud. ¹¹ The Lord spoke to Moses, ¹² "I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, 'At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the Lord your God.' "

Second Scripture Lesson: Exodus 16:13-36 (NRSV)

¹³ In the evening quails came up and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. ¹⁴ When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. ¹⁵ When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them,

“It is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat. ¹⁶ This is what the Lord has commanded: Gather as much of it as each of you needs, an omer per person according to the number of persons, all providing for those in their own tents.” ¹⁷ The Israelites did so, some gathering more, some less. ¹⁸ But when they measured it with an omer, those who gathered much had nothing over, and those who gathered little had no shortage; they gathered as much as each of them needed. ¹⁹ And Moses said to them, “Let no one leave any of it over until morning.” ²⁰ But they did not listen to Moses; some left part of it until morning, and it became wormy and rotten. And Moses was angry with them. ²¹ Morning by morning they gathered it, as much as each needed, but when the sun grew hot, it melted.

²² On the sixth day they gathered twice as much food, two omers apiece. When all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses, ²³ he said to them, “This is what the Lord has commanded: Tomorrow is a day of solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to the Lord; bake what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil, and all that is left over put aside to be kept until morning.” ²⁴ So they put it aside until morning, just as Moses commanded them, and it did not rot, and there were no maggots in it. ²⁵ Moses said, “Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to the Lord; today you will not find it in the field. ²⁶ Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, which is a Sabbath, there will be none.”

²⁷ On the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, and they found none. ²⁸ The Lord said to Moses, “How long will you refuse to keep my commandments and instructions? ²⁹ See! The Lord has given you the Sabbath; therefore on the sixth day he gives you food for two days; each of you stay where you are; do not leave your place on the seventh day.” ³⁰ So the people rested on the seventh day.

³¹ The Israelites called it manna; it was like white coriander seed, and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey. ³² Moses said, “This is what the Lord has commanded: Let an omer of it be kept throughout your generations in order that they may see the food with which I fed you in the wilderness when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.” ³³ And Moses said to Aaron, “Take a jar, and put an omer of manna in it, and place it before the Lord, to be kept throughout your generations.” ³⁴ Just as the Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron placed it before the covenant, for safekeeping. ³⁵ The Israelites ate manna forty years, until they came to a habitable land; they ate manna, until they came to the border of the land of Canaan. ³⁶ (An omer is a tenth of an ephah.)

Down by the Riverside

The refrain of this folk song from Norfolk, Virginia was borrowed by black singers for the more popular spiritual version that became a dixieland jazz favorite. The symbols of salvation—the color white (the long white robe in verse 3 and the milk-white horse in verse 6) and the heavenly raiment (the robe, crown and golden shoes)—are reminiscent of “All God’s Children Got Shoes.” It relates an unnamed riverside to the Jordan which must be crossed to reach heaven, where war is no more.

Friendship Circle Meets Tuesday

The Friendship Circle will be meeting on Tuesday, October 13 at 9:30am in the parlor. This fall they are reading Senior Saints, which focuses on how to live fruitfully while aging faithfully. Pat Thompson will lead the lesson and Carole Leadbeater will provide the refreshments. Hope you can join them for an enriching time of fellowship, food, and friendship.

HALLOWEEN HELP NEEDED!

We're looking for a few ghosts & goblins to help hand out candy to our local trick-or-treaters on Saturday, October 31!

Meet us at church from 4:00 to 6:00pm (costume encouraged, but optional) — we need your friendly faces to represent our faithful church family in our community!

Please contact Vicki Clarke if you can help out!

Electronics Recycling & Paper Shredding Event

On Saturday, October 17, from 9am-11am (or until the shredding truck is filled), Audubon & Haddon Heights residents are encouraged to bring their electronics and paper (limit of 4 boxes per person) to the Borough of Audubon Parking Lot (606 W. Nicholson Road — between Applebees & Audubon Senior Towers) for proper recycling and shredding. This even is held rain or shine. If you have any questions, please contact Cheryl Hauske.

Get Excited ... Stewardship Season Is Almost Here!

Take a journey down memory lane with your Stewardship Committee on Sunday, October 18! We're celebrating 125 years of First Pres & many years of faithful congregational support of our annual budget. In the spirit of celebration we'll be sharing some of those stories. No surprise costumes or crazy themes this year, but it should be fun nonetheless. Sharpen your pencils—and your memories—and prepare for the best!

Start Your Christmas Shopping Early!
