We Prepare to Hear God's Word

Prayer of Confession (unison)

John Calvin, 1509-1564

Almighty and gracious God, since our whole salvation stands in our knowledge of your holy Word, pour out your Holy Spirit upon us, that our hearts may be freed from the chains of sin, so that we may hear and receive your word, recognizing your gracious will for us. Teach us by scripture to love and serve you with delight, praising & glorifying you in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon

L: Sisters and Brothers, God is doing a new thing;

P: Now it springs forth and we give thanks.

L: Friends, believe the Good News of the Gospel.

P: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

*Gloria Patri

#807 (Red Hymnal)

Affirmation of Faith:

Confession of 1967

P: In Christ's reconciling work on the cross, the Spirit brings God's forgiveness to all people, moves them to respond in faith, repentance, and obedience, and initiates the new life in Christ.

L: The new life takes shape in a community in which all people know that God loves and accepts them in spite of what they are.

P: All people therefore accept themselves and love others, knowing that no one has any ground on which to stand, except God's grace.

Communion

Prayer After Communion

Almighty God, you provide the true bread from heaven, your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant that we who have received the sacrament of his body & blood may abide in him & he in us, that we may be filled with the power of his endless life, now & forever. Hear us as we pray together the prayer that Christ taught us:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.

Amen.

We Go to Live God's Word

Worship today will conclude outside in the Memorial Garden, with the Dedication of the Memorial Garden and the Service of Remembrance for All Saints Day.

(The Dedication, All Saints Day Litany, and the closing hymn are included in your bulletin below.)

Memorial Garden Dedication

L: How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts.

P: God of all eternity, we dedicate this Memorial Garden to your glory.

L: We dedicate this garden in joyful celebration of the lives of your people who have found their rest in you at the end of their service in the earthly church.

P: May their witness continue in this place.

L: May those who come here to remember and pray also find their rest in Jesus Christ.

P: May all who come to this garden know the promise of a home prepared by Jesus Christ, our risen Lord.

L: Trusting in Jesus Christ, we dedicate this Memorial Garden in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

P: As we dedicate this place of prayerful rest, we rededicate our lives to the service of Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be all honor and glory now and forever. Amen.

Prayer

Holy Spirit, living within us, guide our hearts and minds to be a place of welcome as we come into this space of worship. God, let this be a place of love and acceptance of all your children. May the roots of this garden grow deep in the soil, as the church families of Collingswood Presbyterian Church and First Presbyterian Church, Haddon Heights, come together as one church, with deep roots in You. Remind us of the saints of our congregations, who are represented in brick and live on in your eternity and in our hearts. Holy God, surround us with your saints today – working in your service for those in need. We pray in Jesus' name, Amen.

All Saints Day Remembrance / Litany for the Saints

L: Before you, O God, we remember today the ones who went before us, not held back by the awesomeness of the task. They followed you with tenacity and joy.

P: Like a cloud of many witnesses, they stand around us.

L: Full of courage and trust they went to new places, ready to stand and suffer with you.

P: Like a cloud of many witnesses, they stand around us.

L: Before you, O God, we remember those who have joined the church triumphant. We are humbled by the witness of their faith. We thank you for the members of the church that dwell now with you ...

Kenneth Sichel

L: We hold the memory of loved ones in our hearts that have gone from our midst.

P: Like a cloud of many witnesses, they stand around us.

L: Blessed are those who die in the Lord, they rest from their labors, and their works follow them.

P: Like a cloud of many witnesses, they stand around us.

L: Before you, O God, we remember those names in our families and communities who have joined you in Eternity ...

(Congregation is invited to speak the name of family members and friends who have passed this year).

L: Before you, O God, we remember the saints of our day, who do not live by the rigid letter of the law but by the wild demands of faith.

P: Like a cloud of many witnesses, they stand around us. Eternal God, we thank you for the witnesses of all times and places. May the stories of their lives show us the richness of your grace. May they inspire us to look deep within our souls. May they encourage us to take the risk of faith and to serve you in new ways. Thanks be to God, Amen.

*Hymn: "In the Garden"

Benediction (unison)

May the Lord watch between me and thee, while we are absent one from the other.

Choral Response

L: Our worship together has ended.

P: Now our service begins.

Scriptures for Today's Service

First Scripture Lesson: Exodus 33:7-23 (NRSV)

The Tent outside the Camp

⁷ Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far off from the camp; he called it the tent of meeting. And everyone who sought the Lord would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp.

⁸ Whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise and stand, each of them, at the entrance of their tents and watch Moses until he had gone into the tent. ⁹ When Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and stand at the entrance of the tent, and the Lord would speak with Moses. ¹⁰ When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would rise and bow down, all of them, at the entrance of their tent. ¹¹ Thus the Lord used to speak to Moses face to face, as one speaks to a friend. Then he would return to the camp, but his young assistant, Joshua son of Nun, would not leave the tent.

Moses's Intercession

¹² Moses said to the Lord, "See, you have said to me, 'Bring up this people,' but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.' ¹³ Now if I have found favor in your sight, please show me your ways, so that I may know you and find favor in your sight. Consider, too, that this nation is your people." ¹⁴ He said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest." ¹⁵ And he said to him, "If your presence will not go, do not bring us up from here. ¹⁶ For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth."

¹⁷ The Lord said to Moses, "I will also do this thing that you have asked, for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name." ¹⁸ Moses said, "Please show me your glory." ¹⁹ And he said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you and will proclaim before you the name, 'The Lord,' and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. ²⁰ But," he said, "you cannot see my face, for no one shall see me and live." ²¹ And the Lord continued, "See, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock, ²² and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; ²³ then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back, but my face shall not be seen."

Second Scripture Lesson: Deuteronomy 34:1-12 (NRSV)

Moses Dies and Is Buried in the Land of Moab

¹ Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, ² all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, ³ the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. ⁴ The Lord said to him, “This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.” ⁵ Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord’s command. ⁶ He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. ⁷ Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired, and his vigor had not abated. ⁸ The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

¹⁰ Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. ¹¹ He was unequalled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, ¹² and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

32 I Sing the Mighty Power of God

1 I sing the might - y power of God that made the moun-tains rise,
 2 I sing the good-ness of the Lord who filled the earth with food.
 3 There's not a plant or flower be - low but makes thy glo - ries known.

that spread the flow - ing seas a - broad and built the loft - y
 God formed the crea-tures through the Word, and then pro-nounced them
 And clouds a - rise, and tem-pests blow, by or - der from thy skies. I sing the wis-dom that or - dained the sun to rule the day, good. Lord, how thy won-ders are dis-played, wher-e'er I turn my eye, throne, while all that bor-rows life from thee is ev - er in thy care,

The moon shines full at God's com-mand, and all the stars o - bey.
 if I sur - vey the ground I tread, or gaze up - on the sky!
 and ev - ery-where that we can be, thou, God, art pres-ent there.

With minimal revision this text brings together six of the eight four-line stanzas in an 18th-century hymn written for children and originally headed "Praise for Creation and Providence." The anonymous German tune provides a fitting sense of breadth and wonder.

438 Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me

- 1 Rock of A - ges, cleft for me, let me hide my - self in thee.
- 2 Not the la - bors of my hands can ful - fill thy law's de-mands.
- 3 Noth-ing in my hand I bring; sim - ply to thy cross I cling;
- 4 While I draw this fleet-ing breath, when my eye-lids close in death,

Let the wa - ter and the blood from thy wound-ed side which flowed
 Could my zeal no res - pite know, could my tears for - ev - er flow, na - ked, come to thee for dress, help-less, look to thee for grace;
 when I soar to worlds un-known, see thee on thy judg-ment throne,

Though scholars discredit the story that this hymn was written when the author found shelter under a large rock during a thunderstorm, the popular appeal of that conjecture perhaps lies in the energy of this plea and the vividness of its imagery drawn from many biblical sources.

The broad and sweeping tune with which this hymn is so closely identified was created to be sung during a reverent but dramatic procession at the beginning of an All Saints' Day service, an enacted representation of the enduring "fellowship divine" celebrated by this text.

Pastor Eliza Away Next Week

Please note that Pastor Eliza will be on vacation next week from Monday, November 2 through Sunday, November 8. Please contact the office for assistance, or Marci Spiegle, Clerk of Session, in an emergency when the office is closed. Pastor Rachel Sutphin from Hammonton Presbyterian (609-561-0168) will be available for pastoral emergencies during her absence.

Volunteer to Teach Sunday School!

We always need volunteers to teach the PreK-2nd & the 3rd-5th classes. Everything is prepared ahead of time for you - we just need an hour of your time for our littlest disciples. Sign up to teach on the board in the Parlor. Contact Kathy Mullan for more information.

Sunday School Snacks Needed!

We're going through our collection of snacks for the Sunday School kids quickly, so we're in need of some snacks and drinks for the kids on Sunday mornings. Any prepackaged pretzels, cookies, granola bars, crackers, juice boxes, etc would be greatly appreciated. They especially enjoy Capri Sun, Sun Chips & Goldfish crackers! Thank you!

Take a Trip Down Memory Lane ... Stewardship 2027!

We kicked off our 2027 Stewardship Campaign last month with a journey down memory lane, reminiscing about all the crazy themes from the past. We may not have surprise costumes or crazy skits this year, but we still need your support. The 2027 Budget & a letter from our Stewardship Committee was distributed via email last month, and can be found on our website at <https://fpchaddonheights.org/online-forms/stewardship-2027/>.

There are several ways to submit your pledge:

- Fill out a pledge card (available in the narthex & pew backs) & return it to Leslie Clark or to the church office.
- Scan the QR code here to submit your pledge online.
- Visit our website at the link above to print your own pledge card.
- Submit your pledge via email or verbally directly to Leslie Clark.

There's a reason our church is celebrating 125 years in good financial and spiritual health, and that reason is YOU. We're grateful for many years of faithful congregational support of our annual budget. Help us continue making memories by pledging toward our 2027 budget today!

Village Playbox Presents ...

The Village Playbox brings the main stage to life as they kick off their featured performance, The Philadelphia Story, on Friday, November 6. The Philadelphia Story is a classic 1940 romantic comedy directed by George Cukor. It follows a wealthy, self-willed socialite named Tracy Lord on the eve of her second marriage to a dull, self-made businessman. Her plans go awry when her sarcastic ex-husband and an undercover tabloid reporter crash the weekend. All shows are held at FPC in the Social Hall. Visit <http://villageplaybox.org/tix/checkoutmainstage.htm> to purchase tickets.

When: Friday & Saturday: Nov. 6 & 7; 13 & 14, 20 & 21 @ 8:00 PM
 Sunday: Nov. 8 & 15 @ 3:00 PM

Tickets: General Admission: $22.00 ($20.00 Online)
 Seniors/Students: $19.00 ($17.00 Online)
 Child Under 12: $10.00 ($8.00 Online)

Fall Clothing Collection

As we get ready to FALL into November, please think of others as you change to sweatshirts and warmer jackets. Cheryl Hauske is collecting sweatshirts, sweatpants, and jackets of all sizes for She Has a Name and Joseph's House in Camden. If you have any of these cooler weather items, please place them in a box or bag and leave them in Room #2 with a note that says She Has a Name attached. Thank you!
