Dear Enon Chapel Baptist Church,

For many children who come to us, their first night is the most important one.

After seasons of instability or uncertainty, the very first gift we can offer is a safe place to sleep.

A warm bed in a Baptist Children's Homes (BCH) cottage or in the home of one of our foster families. Clean sheets. A soft pillow. A quiet room. And maybe for the first time in a long time...peace.

That first night's sleep begins something beautiful. Because once children feel safe, they can begin to feel hope. And once they feel hope, they can begin to dream again.

The kindness of your church is what opens the door for dreams to take shape and, most importantly, for children to know about a Heavenly Father who loves them more than they can imagine—THANK YOU!

Boys and girls who once went to bed worried about what tomorrow might bring now fall asleep imagining a future God designed just for them.

Because of your church, children in BCH's care are realizing dreams they never knew were possible:

"I believe God has put me here and put these people in my life. I see how He has lined things up that would never have happened without Him being involved in my life." — Rachel
When Rachel came to BCH, life had been anything but easy. But with safety, support, and people who believed in her, everything changed. She worked hard in school. She rediscovered her confidence. And she began to dream again. Today, Rachel is a nursing school graduate, proudly serving others as an ER nurse—a dream she once thought was out of reach.

"It's incredible to have a front-row seat to what God is doing." — Pastor Luis
The Sunday worship service on April 27, 2025 that took place at Mills Home Baptist Church is a joyous snapshot of how God is moving in the hearts and lives of children throughout BCH. That day, four children stepped forward into the baptismal waters at the campus church in Thomasville—each one a radiant reminder of what compassionate, Christ-centered care can do. One by one, Pastor Luis Quintanar immersed them into the water as the other children and their cottage parents looked on.

“It is amazing how God brings the right children into the right homes...You see His plans are perfect.” — Ali

Ali and Will always knew adoption would be the way they grew their family. So when the call came that a newborn boy was waiting for them, they drove three hours with hearts full of hope. Noah had been lovingly cared for by his brave birth mother, and now he rested peacefully as the Johnsons held him for the first time—finally home. The next morning, tears and laughter filled the room as they introduced him to his new grandparents. For Ali and Will, adoption wasn't a simply a dream for their family—it was God's plan, bringing Noah into a circle of love that keeps widening still.

“Thank you” may feel small, but please know:

God is at work through your prayers and support.

We see it! The stories you've just read are snapshots of His goodness.

Every child who rests safely because of you is experiencing this.

As we look ahead to a new year, your church's continued support ensures more precious children will receive a safe night of sleep—followed by days filled with growth, healing, joy, and dreams taking flight. Above it all, your church makes it possible for children, and everyone we have the privilege of serving, to know the love of King Jesus.

Thank you for not only giving comfort today, but giving hope for tomorrow and all eternity.

Blessings.
