

Tomorrow

Who can help but think about tomorrow? 🎵🎵 The sun'll come out, tomorrow. Bet your bottom dollar that, tomorrow... 🎵🎵 We seem never to hear the weather but for today and tomorrow. Tomorrow will be a better day. So assured are we about tomorrow, we no longer stop and wonder about tomorrow being a continuance of creation.

God ensures we have a better picture about tomorrow, as He writes from the beginning to the end. And yet, Jesus warns us with compassion to not worry about tomorrow, but seek Him and His kingdom today, as a priority. One day at a time, then comes tomorrow. He does not mean not to plan, but to not worry.

His brother and first pastor of the church at Jerusalem wrote, "Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will travel to such and such a city and spend a year there and do business and make a profit." You don't even know what tomorrow will bring — what your life will be! For you are like smoke that appears for a little while, then vanishes." So what about tomorrow? What can we know? "We know that if our temporary, earthly dwelling is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal dwelling in the heavens, not made with hands." We know as believers in Jesus: "We do not give up. Even though our outer person is being destroyed, our inner person is being renewed day by day."

We also know Jesus' promise: "In My Father's house are many dwelling places; if not, I would have told you. I am going away to prepare a place for you. I will come back and receive you to Myself, so that where I am you may be also." We know: "God wanted to make known among the Gentiles (us) the glorious wealth of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory; eternity (including today) with Him by trusting His promises;" a free gift for the taking, accepting. We know: "How great a love the Father has given us that we should be called God's children. And we are! We know that when He appears, we will be like Him because we will see Him as He is. And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself just as He is pure."

Father, so much about tomorrow You have revealed, for us to but learn and trust; trust and obey, and knowing what You plan and say will happen. Thank You for these assurances.

Tomorrow. And what we don't know, we can be just as assured that as promised, He will "never leave nor forsake us;" you don't even have to bet your bottom dollar 🎵🎵
