“What Does Honor Look Like?”

Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. “Honor your father and mother” (this is the first commandment with a promise), “that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land.”

Ephesians 6:1-3 ESV

I want to join with so many others that have probably already said it today, “Happy Mother’s Day!” We have several young ladies that are expecting their first child and today has a special place in your life. We are so happy and excited for you! We are praying that you will have a safe pregnancy and delivery of a healthy baby. We also have several that you have given birth for the first since last Mother’s Day and we are over the moon happy for you! For some, you may have adopted a precious child or perhaps welcomed a stepchild into your world. That is a special love in a realm of its own. We have others that have become Grandmothers for the first time and that makes your first Mother’s Day as a grandmother one to cherish. We have several multigenerational women celebrating Mother’s Day together today. I hope you savor every minute of today. To all our mothers, grandmothers, great grandmothers and great-great grandmothers, truly, Happy Mother’s Day!

This morning we want to take a moment to gain some insight into God’s word about a well-known precept, “Honoring” our mothers. What does it mean and what does that look like in our world today. I pray that our time together today will honor our Lord and bless each one of you!

FAMILY NEWS

Kate Bristow (9 yr. old) is seriously ill with an autoimmune disorder. She is at Vanderbilt Children’s Hospital. Kate is a dear friend of Jim & Jane Hundley’s granddaughter.

Jeff Fieber (father of Amber Parker). Doctors have discovered a lesion on his kidney. They will be running further tests and determine a plan of action.

Jim Hundley continues to make progress. It was great to see him here last Sunday evening.

Donna McDowell continues to heal from a broken wrist.

Richard Morehouse (Sherrie Johnson’s dad) underwent a blood transfusion recently and has since developed a blood clots. Tests showed he has an ulcer. He’s expected to go home from the hospital on Saturday.

Andy Robinson continues to do well following his shoulder surgery and we’re glad he was able to be here last Sunday.

Peggy Thrasher (aunt of Dawn Bradley) has suffered a stroke.

Chris Trusty is doing well and was able to get out some last weekend.

Mark Wright is at Vanderbilt’s Stallworth Rehabilitation, room #2232. Mark will be busy with rehab appointments in the mornings and early afternoons, so please call him before visiting him. He continues to make good progress but has a long road ahead. Prayers for his brain quickly makes the necessary adjustments, and he will begin to think clearly going forward.
