No Regrets!

18 "Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past.
19 See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?

Isaiah 43:18-19 NIV

I guess all of us, as we were growing up, used our imagination to think about how our lives would turn out in adulthood. Would we get married? If so, where would we live and what kind of house or apartment would we live in? Will we have kids and if so, how many? What will I do for a living? The list of options was innumerable. Yet, we would also admit that rarely have those thoughts ever come to fruition. Life is seldom just like we thought it would turn out to be. Sometimes that can be a really good thing. Sometimes life can also take unexpected, heartbreaking twists and turns. Some of it is beyond our knowledge or control. There are other times that we bring it all on ourselves. It can leave a person with a lot of heartache, pain and regret.

This morning, we are going to be looking at the life of Samson in the Bible. Samson was a mighty man of valor, but he was a man full or weaknesses and shortcomings. His life ended in a very tragic way. Let's take a moment today to look at his life and see what life lessons are there for us today. I pray that our time together this morning will be a blessing. Thank you for worshipping with us this morning!
