“Even If”

16 Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter.

17 If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to save us from it, and he will rescue us from your hand, O king.

18 But even if he does not, we want you to know, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up."

- Daniel 3:16-18 NIV

It's inevitable. If we live long enough, we will face adversity or trial. We may suffer or we may have to watch as someone we dearly love goes through someone very difficult, perhaps life changing. It's not something we signed up for. In fact, we tend to avoid hardship at all costs. But, eventually something will occur that was not only unavoidable, but you never saw it coming. Take courage, as Christians, we are Overcomers.

In this morning's lesson, we will consider the lives of Hananiah, Mishaël and Azariah. You probably think you have never heard of them, but they are actually household names in Christian families. Perhaps they will give each of us a perspective about facing adversity that we have never considered before. I pray that you will be encouraged because you came and worshipped with us this morning!

- Kevin
