"What If You Don't Feel Saved?"

11 For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope.

12 Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you.

13 You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart.

14 I will be found by you, declares the Lord

Jeremiah 29:11-14 ESV

This morning, we continue our Sermon Series, "Never Forget" with a lesson entitled, "What If I Don't Feel Saved?" This morning's lesson may be one of the most important sermons you may hear all year long. The answer to this question has eternal implications. So, we are going to cover a wide range of answers to the question. At one time or another in your life, you will not feel saved. There may come a time in your life that you once felt incredibly close to God, but now, not so much. There may have been some major events that take place in your life that have rocked your world and caused you to lose your bearings. You may have committed some sin, and you are struggling with being confident of God's forgiveness. There may be times of listening to other people that have you confused, misled or troubled. There may be so many reasons why you feel the way that you do, but it's vitally important that you know how to find security with your salvation and how to rest in that peace. If you have ever doubted your salvation or if there ever comes a time later that you do, I hope that this lesson will point you in the right direction. It is not God's will that you ever are confused about your security with Him. I pray that this lesson will be an anchor to your soul.
