“Joy Comes In The Morning”

4 Sing praises to the Lord, O you his saints and give thanks to his holy name.

5 For his anger is but for a moment and his favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

- Psalm 30:4-5 ESV

“It is always the darkest right before the dawn,” is a phrase that I have heard all of my life. It’s actually not true. The darkest part of the night is actually midnight. That’s because at midnight, the Sun is exactly on the opposite side of the earth.

Did you know that there are actually places on the earth where, at certain times of the year, it never gets completely dark. It’s called the “Midnight Sun.” The sun stays visible for 24 hours a day for several months. This occurs in Norway and other places at or near the Artic Circle. At the North Pole, for six months of the year, it never gets fully daylight. The Sun never gets above the horizon.

I personally enjoy experiencing the different seasons and I like it that I live in a place where it is dark and light every day. You can count on it, that’s the way it is here in Lebanon, Tennessee. Sometimes, we can learn lessons from nature that can serve as reminders of life in the spiritual realm as well. Such is the case for facing life’s difficult days. We will all have them. There will come days of crisis. There will come seasons of hardship. But, as we learn from The Word today, the cares and worries of this life are temporary. Joy Comes In The Morning! I hope our time together today will be a blessing to you.

- Kevin
