“Not Without Me, You’re Not!”

16 But Ruth replied, "Don't urge me to leave you or to turn back from you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God.

17 Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD deal with me, be it ever so severely, if anything but death separates you and me."

- Ruth 1:16-17 NIV

This morning, we continue our Sermon Series, “Trusting God’s Plan: Lessons From the Book of Ruth.” Last week, we talked about the famines of our lives, both physical and spiritual. God’s Word reminds us that sometimes it is during a hardship that God does His greatest work in our lives. Whenever life is going really good, we may tend to drift away from God, thinking that we are able to take care of ourselves.

This morning, our lesson is entitled, “Not Without Me, You’re Not.” We are going to be looking at the relationship of Naomi and Ruth. It will be a great reminder to all of us of the people that God brings into our lives. Isn’t it a tremendous blessing to know that we do not have to go through this life alone. Isn’t it a fantastic blessing to be a part of the Family of God? Our family can testify to that!! The way that all of you have loved us, cared for us, provided for us and been so generous and kind to us has been overwhelming. You have blown us away with every expression of care and concern. There are no words to adequately convey the comfort and blessing that is to us. We will see that same insight in today’s lesson. God works in and through the people that God brings into our lives. Thank you for being with us today. I pray that our time together today will bless you today!

FAMILY NEWS

Doug Alsup is still undergoing testing and is very weak. Glad he was able to attend our Sunday morning worship last week.

Donnie & Mary Ann Bain are both sick.

Genia Chatfield is home under Hospice care.

Gilbert Cooper (father of Cindy Usrey) is recuperating from surgery where scar tissue was removed that will hopefully resolve some digestive issues he has been dealing with lately.

Cason Denton is recovering from shoulder surgery. Prayers for complete healing and a successful rehab.

Mike Flanagan’s heart is back out of rhythm; he’s on thyroid medication that helps with his strength. He’s scheduled for an Ablation at the end of the month. Glad he was able to attend our Wednesday evening service.

Prayers for the Waller family: Ricky Waller (friend of the Johnsons) is close to transitioning from this life.

Delana White had her 1st chemo treatment last Thursday.

Congratulations

Amber Davis!
