

Sermon Notes for October 4, 2026

Title: God's Character Shapes Our Care

Text: Psalm 145

Main idea: God's _____ shapes our _____
and _____ as we minister to others.

Four responses to God's character that shape our ministry to one another:

1. We should be _____ and seek to _____ humility in those we minister to.
2. We should be people who _____ God and who _____ others to worship God.
3. We should be people who _____ in God and _____ others to trust Him.
4. We should be _____ and _____ others toward gratitude.

Sermon Notes for October 4, 2026

Title: God's Character Shapes Our Care

Text: Psalm 145

Main idea: God's _____ shapes our _____
and _____ as we minister to others.

Four responses to God's character that shape our ministry to one another:

1. We should be _____ and seek to _____ humility in those we minister to.
2. We should be people who _____ God and who _____ others to worship God.
3. We should be people who _____ in God and _____ others to trust Him.
4. We should be _____ and _____ others toward gratitude.

Discussion Guide

1. What stood out to you in today's gathering?
2. A friend comes to you, discouraged. After a long conversation in which they describe how tired they are of being stuck in the same pattern of habitual sin, they say "I just don't think it's possible for me to change..." What might you say to encourage them that real transformation is possible?
3. Heath Lambert, playing off of a popular quote by John Piper, says "Biblical counseling exists because worship does not." He claims that the goal of our ministry to one another is to restore each other to right worship. Going into ministry conversations, we may find that we have goals that settle for less than restored worship. Can you think of some examples of this?
4. Which of the four responses (humility, worship, trust, gratitude) do you most need God to form in you as you grow in your desire to help others? How do you see Jesus serving as the perfect example of these responses?
5. What is one takeaway from today's message that you believe the Lord is prompting you to live out in your life?

Discussion Guide

1. What stood out to you in today's gathering?
2. A friend comes to you, discouraged. After a long conversation in which they describe how tired they are of being stuck in the same pattern of habitual sin, they say "I just don't think it's possible for me to change..." What might you say to encourage them that real transformation is possible?
3. Heath Lambert, playing off of a popular quote by John Piper, says "Biblical counseling exists because worship does not." He claims that the goal of our ministry to one another is to restore each other to right worship. Going into ministry conversations, we may find that we have goals that settle for less than restored worship. Can you think of some examples of this?
4. Which of the four responses (humility, worship, trust, gratitude) do you most need God to form in you as you grow in your desire to help others? How do you see Jesus serving as the perfect example of these responses?
5. What is one takeaway from today's message that you believe the Lord is prompting you to live out in your life?