The Gospel Way Q&A:

Question 18: What Form Does Our Sin Take Against One Another?

Answer: We use each other, treating people like things, and things like people. We love ourselves more than our neighbors, diminishing them through dishonor and injury, lust and exploitation, falsehood and envy.

Scripture: Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. For the commandments, “You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet,” and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (Rom 13:8-10)

Refreshments
