

Sermon Notes for January 21, 2024

Title: From Theology to Ethics: A Call to Christian Kindness and Holiness

Text: James 1:19-27; Psalm 68:5; Psalm 139:13-16; Isaiah 1:17; Jeremiah 7:1-7

1. We are brought _____ by the word of _____ and given ears to _____. (James 1:16-18)
2. We are brought _____ by the word of _____ so be _____ to hear, _____ to speak, _____ to anger. (James 1:19-21)
3. We are to be _____ of the word and not _____ only, _____ ourselves. (James 1:22-25)
4. We are to be hearers of the _____ and not doers of _____ only. (James 1:26)
5. We are to show _____ toward others and _____ toward God. (James 1:27)

Sermon Notes for January 21, 2024

Title: From Theology to Ethics: A Call to Christian Kindness and Holiness

Text: James 1:19-27; Psalm 68:5; Psalm 139:13-16; Isaiah 1:17; Jeremiah 7:1-7

1. We are brought _____ by the word of _____ and given ears to _____. (James 1:16-18)
2. We are brought _____ by the word of _____ so be _____ to hear, _____ to speak, _____ to anger. (James 1:19-21)
3. We are to be _____ of the word and not _____ only, _____ ourselves. (James 1:22-25)
4. We are to be hearers of the _____ and not doers of _____ only. (James 1:26)
5. We are to show _____ toward others and _____ toward God. (James 1:27)

5.a. _____ orphans and widows in their affliction and _____ ourselves unstained from the world are not independent ideas but are vitally connected. (James 1:27; Psalm 68:5; 139:13-16; Isaiah 1:17; Jeremiah 7:1-7)

b. _____ and _____ is our Christian call in light of the _____ of Christ.

Discussion Questions

1. What stood out to you in today's service?
2. How is our belief (theology/doctrine) connected with our behavior (ethic/action)?
3. Are we still called to "visit orphans and widows in their affliction"? Why or why not? What does this look like today?
4. Is being "pro-life" more than just voting a certain way for certain candidates? If so, what? What does a "pro-life" lifestyle look like?
5. How is the Holy Spirit leading you to respond to today's service?

5.a. _____ orphans and widows in their affliction and
_____ ourselves unstained from the world are not independent ideas but are vitally connected. (James 1:27; Psalm 68:5; 139:13-16; Isaiah 1:17; Jeremiah 7:1-7)

b. _____ and _____ is our Christian call in light of the _____ of Christ.

Discussion Questions

1. What stood out to you in today's service?
2. How is our belief (theology/doctrine) connected with our behavior (ethic/action)?
3. Are we still called to "visit orphans and widows in their affliction"? Why or why not? What does this look like today?
4. Is being "pro-life" more than just voting a certain way for certain candidates? If so, what? What does a "pro-life" lifestyle look like?
5. How is the Holy Spirit leading you to respond to today's service?