Discussion Guide

1. What stood out to you in today's gathering?
2. Does it really matter where we came from when we are trying to understand who we are and where we are going? Explain.
3. The world teaches, "What you believe is true!" The Bible teaches, "Believe what is true!" What is the difference between these two approaches? How do we know what is true or truth?
4. The Gospel Way comments, "The reality of God as Creator provides a framework that gives our life meaning, purpose, and direction. We were made for God. Creation is the theater of his glory. The God who has revealed himself owns all he has made. His design is what matters. His purpose is what stands. According to Scripture, we don't make meaning or purpose for ourselves; we discover meaning and purpose in line with God's design." How does this understanding stand in contrast to the world's teaching? How does this truth inform how we encourage and help one another?
5. Brian Rosner sums up Expressive Individualism in 6 points, "1) The best way to find yourself is to look inward. 2) The highest goal in life is happiness. 3) All moral judgments are merely expressions of feeling or personal preference. 4) Forms of external authority are to be rejected. 5) The world will improve dramatically as the scope of individual freedom grows. 6) Everyone's quest for self-expression should be celebrated." Do you see this kind of therapeutic philosophy/religion in our culture? How does Expressive Individualism stand in contrast to faithful Christianity?
6. What is one takeaway from today's message that you believe the Lord is prompting you to live out in your life?
