

2024 Deacon Nomination Form

When nominating men to serve as deacons, please remain mindful of the scriptural admonitions found in Acts 6:2-6 and 1 Timothy 3:8-13.

Acts 6:2-6 NIV

So the Twelve gathered all the disciples together and said, "It would not be right for us to neglect the ministry of the word of God in order to wait on tables. Brothers and sisters, choose seven men from among you who are known to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will turn this responsibility over to them and will give our attention to prayer and the ministry of the word." This proposal pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit; also Philip, Procorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas from Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these men to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

1 Timothy 3:8-13 NIV

In the same way, deacons are to be worthy of respect, sincere, not indulging in much wine, and not pursuing dishonest gain. They must keep hold of the deep truths of the faith with a clear conscience. They must first be tested; and then if there is nothing against them, let them serve as deacons in the same way. The women are to be worthy of respect, not malicious talkers but temperate and trustworthy in everything. A deacon must be faithful to his wife and must manage his children and his household well. Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Christ Jesus.

ALL DEACON NOMINATIONS WILL BE CONSIDERED CONFIDENTIAL AND MUST BE RECEIVED BY NOON ON SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 1st, 2024.

The following men are ineligible for nomination because they are either currently serving or their term is ending:

Currently Serving: Charlie Blansit, Albino Castro, John Crumbley, Gordon Hendley, Dan Irvin, Tom Irwin, Tom Jessup, Bruce Miller, Ron Rhemann, Mark Speas
