Taking the Glorious Gospel to the People in Brazil

September 26, 2018

Dear friends,

And...phew! Bro. Mike and Tammy Ring are back, and if there is anyone thankful, it's me! The past seven to eight weeks have been wonderful, crazy, busy, detail-filled, full of visits, engaging with visitors, and times of reconnecting with former attendees. We have had pastors fill in for our services and encourage the congregations; sometimes I had help with car-pooling, and sometimes it was just extra coordination to get everyone to church.

On a Thursday night a few weeks ago, a lady, Maria Helena, came to visit a service out at Biblical Faith Baptist Church (Lami). She came back on a Sunday, and later that week a church lady went with me to visit her. We shared the Gospel with her and her husband, and the couple thanked us for coming. The following Sunday the husband joined his wife, along with their grandson, at the service. At the end of the message, there was an invitation, and we all rejoiced to see both the husband and wife placed their faith in Christ. Please pray for Fernando and Maria Helena.

In my last prayer letter, I asked prayer that our ladies at the church plant at Vila Nova would desire to help serve in the children's ministries. Sunday morning we began a series in Sunday school introducing Children's ministries. Adriana and her young daughters came out each week, as well as Clara, a twelve-year-old who has been in our church for the past three years. Anyone who has been in a small church or church plant can understand the load-lift when members in the church express desire to serve in ministry. This past weekend, Clara took a small class and effectively taught a lesson, led songs, taught a verse, and monitored while the children colored. Adriana has also begun assisting. This is a great answer to prayer, and we are excited to help her grow in this area.

This past week marked twelve years of following God's direction in my life to Porto Alegre, RS. Ministry was hard in ways I had not expected, and there were many times I learned to pray my way through challenges. Thank you for coming alongside me in prayer and support all these years. On a personal note, my parents and I are planning a stateside visit at Christmas with my brothers and family. We are excited to be able to see them and enjoy their company.

Requests:
