Think About. Waiting on God means directing your attention to Him in hopeful anticipation of what He will do. It entails trusting Him with every fiber of your being instead of trying to figure things out for yourself. Waiting on God is the way He designed you to live: all day every day. He created you to stay conscious of Him as you go about your daily duties

God has promised many blessing on those who wait on Him: renewed strength, living above one's circumstances, resurgence of hope, awareness of His continual Presence. Waiting on God enables you to glorify Him by living in deep dependence on Him ready to do His will. It also helps you to enjoy God; in His Presence is fullness of Joy

Isiah 40:31, Psalm 16:11
