CHURCH OF the WEEK Praise Community Church, Firestone, CO Pastor Brian Thompson

Think About. The world sees us as we appear to be; God sees us as we really are. He sees our hearts, and He understands our intentions. The opinions of others should be relatively unimportant to us; however, God's view of us—His understanding of our actions, our thoughts, and our motivations—should be vitally important. The nineteenth-century reformer Margaret Fuller warned, "Beware of over-great pleasure in being popular or even beloved." And her words still ring true. Few things in life are more futile than keeping up appearances for the sake of impressing the neighbors. So do yourself a favor: don't even try to keep up with the Joneses. You've got better things to do—far better things—like pleasing your loved ones here on earth and your Father in Heaven.

Outside appearances, things like the clothes you wear or the car you drive, are important to other people but totally unimportant to God. When in doubt, trust God.
