Think About. We live in a world that is always changing, but we worship a God who never changes—thank goodness! The next time you face unwelcome changes, remember that some things never change—things like the love you feel in your heart for your family and friends...and the love God feels for you. So instead of worrying too much about life's inevitable challenges, focus your energies on finding solutions. Have faith in God's ability to work through you, do you best to solve your problems, and leave the rest up to God.

Let nothing disturb you, nothing frighten you; all things are passing; God never changes. Saint Teresa of Avila
