Ishmael's Call:

Ishmael's Call, a ministry designed to make disciples among internationals, and to train local churches to reach unreached friends with the Gospel. Dr Jamil Sadiq, is a fourth-generation Christian, with a Doctorate (D.Min) in ministry and a Master's in English, moved from NYC to IN to make disciples among Muslims, Sikhs, and Hindus after planting churches across Pakistan. Being sent by the Lord involuntarily to reach internationals in our backyard, he brings his experience and knowledge, a powerful resource for leaders and local churches.

Ishmael's Call echoes Abraham's prayer for Ishmael to be blessed, which God answered with the promise... "I've heard you: and I will surely bless him." (Gen. 17). Ishmael's Call equips churches/ individuals to build meaningful relationships with internationals by knowing their culture and worldview. "Speaking to Muslims about Jesus" is the focus of seminars and self-study materials developed by Jamil.

"Jamil Sadiq helps other believers do what they really want to do, but don't know how to engage in thoughtful and loving conversation with their Muslim friends and neighbors. Jamil's clear teaching and insights removes some of the fear and intimidation that we will say or do the wrong thing in our attempts to share the love of Jesus. Jamil's Clean instruction will help equip you to astutely handle God's Word"

Rev. Bill Hossler,
(Former) President Missionary Church, Inc.

"Jamil Sadiq's heart for Muslims is immediately obvious, and his lasting contribution to the church may very well be that more of us are having thoughtful, respectful conversations with our Muslim neighbors because of Jamil's careful teaching and compassionate example."

JONAH

*The Message of the Cross
For the People of the Crescent
Through the Eyes of Jonah*

REV. DR. JAMIL SADIQ

A study guide to approach internationalists

Introduction

For the People of the Crescent The Message of the Cross Through the Eyes of Jonah

Jonah's book is simple and straightforward, a plain message without confusion. It exposes God's heart for His lost creation. The story is appealing, it catches our imagination and delights a child's heart. But, in fact, it is not just a story, it is the true message of YHWH God who is faithful and whose heart beats for the nations.

Three Essential Facts about Jonah's Book:

a) Simplicity b) Sublimity c) Supremacy

a) Simplicity

1. The book begins with the words and and now.
 - a) And: (YLT - Young Literal Translation)
The dictionary defines and: "A conjunction word used to connect words of the same parts of speech, clauses, or sentences that are to be taken jointly."
 - Now: ([King James Version (KJV), New King James Version (NKJV), and American Standard Version (ASV) started it with the word now.

c) Supremacy

1. It speaks directly to the desperation of people who are not Israelites or Jewish, and who know only worldviews which rest in hope for this present world. For example, paganism teaches that if an action harms no one, do whatever you will. There is no hope for forgiveness of sin or eternal life.
2. It depicts the concern of the Creator God of the Universe, the Great I Am, for His rebellious and stubborn creation – mankind, whom he made in his own image! (Genesis 1:27)
3. It unveils the perspective of the people of Israel who ignore the peril of the nations of the world. It introduces YHWH God's missionary heart for the nations of the world!

I believe that the book of Jonah contains an essential message for the people of the Crescent. Why do I believe this? It is the message of the Cross. We will explore this.

JONAH: A reluctant and running prophet. Jonah spelled as an acronym "Jesus offers nations anointed heart" could be God's humor. He is able to bring good from evil. (See Appendix A to read Jonah's story by Islamic perspective)

J	O	N	A	H
Jesus	Offers	Nations	Anointed	Heart

Defined as "the present time or moment; or it is used to draw someone's attention towards a particular statement or point in a narrative."

- b) I believe the sixty-six books of the Holy Bible, beginning at Genesis 3:15; 17:18, Isaiah 60:7 and continuing throughout Revelation, remind us of the continued story of a Missionary God. The psalmist shouted in Psalm 33:11, "The plans of the LORD stand firm forever, the purposes of His heart through all generations."
- c) This book does not narrate the prophecies, instead it tells the story of a reluctant and running prophet.

B) Sublimity

1. Jonah is the Old Testament's Evangelist. The Book of Jonah is the Old Testament's Gospel. Jonah explains the typology of Jesus' death and resurrection, the Great Commission, and God's final revelation of grace and love.
2. This is the only book in the Old Testament that reveals God's gracious heart for the nations of the world. It contains the gospel message. This is why it is called foolishness by worldly scholars.
3. No matter how disobedient the prophet, the writing became part of God's Holy Book.

Most people have heard of Jonah but many have never considered how this 3,000-year old story still impacts the world's two largest religions - Christianity and Islam.

Why did God command Jonah to go to Nineveh? Why did He call Nineveh "the great city?" Why did God choose Jonah to speak as a prophet both to Israelites as well as Gentiles? Why did Jonah reject his God-given mandate?

In this four-week study you will learn what message it contains for the people of Crescent, providing analogues, parallels within perspective of Islamic beliefs. Jonah's book is simple and straightforward, a plain message without confusion. It exposes God's heart for His lost creation. The story is appealing. It catches our imagination and delights a child's heart. But it is not just a story. It is the true message of YHWH God who is faithful and whose heart beats for the nations.
