May 2026

“Behold, you delight in truth in the inward being, and you teach me wisdom in the secret heart.”

Hi again.

An individual stands before a judge and jury, places one hand on a Bible and the other in the air, and makes a pledge. For the next few minutes, with God as their helper, they will “Tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.” They are a witness. Their job is neither to expand upon or dilute the truth. Their job is to tell the truth. Leave it to the legal counsel to interpret. Leave it to the jury to resolve. Leave it to the judge to apply. But the witness? The witness speaks the truth. Let them do more or less and they will taint the outcome. But let them tell the truth and justice has a chance.

The Christian is to be a witness. The Christian, too, makes a pledge. Like the witness in court, the Christian is called to tell the truth. The bench may be absent and the judge unseen, but the Bible is present, the watching world is the jury, and Christians are the primary witnesses. Christians are subpoenaed by no less than Jesus himself: “But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you; and you will bear witness for me in Jerusalem, and throughout all Judaea and Samaria, and even in the farthest corners of the earth.” Acts 1:8.

Christians are witnesses. Like witnesses in court, we are called to testify, to tell what we have seen and heard. We are to speak truthfully. The Christian’s task is neither to water down or inflate the truth. Our task is to tell the truth, PERIOD! There is a difference between the witness in court and the witness for Christ. The witness in court eventually steps down from the witness chair. The witness for Christ never does. Since the claims of Christ are always on trial, court is perpetually in session, and we remain under oath. For the Christian, deception is never an option. It was not an option for Jesus.

One of the more astounding assessments of Christ comes from the Prophet Isaiah; “And they made his grave with the wicked and with a rich man in his death, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth.” Isaiah 53:9. Jesus was unwaveringly honest. His every word is accurate, his every sentence true. No cheating on tests. No altering the accounts. Not once did Jesus stretch the truth. Not once did Jesus shade the truth. Not once did he avoid the truth. Jesus simply told the truth. No deceit was found in his mouth.

If God has his way with us, none will be found in ours. God longs for us to be just like Jesus. God’s plan is to shape us along the lines of his Son, Romans 8:28. God seeks not to decrease or minimize our deception but to eliminate our deception. God is blunt about dishonesty: “no one who is dishonest will live in my house.” Psalm 101:7.

God has a very strict honor code. From Genesis to Revelation, the theme is the same. God loves the truth and hates deceit. In 1 Corinthians 6:9-10, the Apostle Paul listed the type of people who will not inherit the kingdom of God; “Surely you know that wrongdoers will never possess the kingdom of God. Make no mistake: no fornicator or idolater, no adulterer or sexual pervert, no thief, extortioner, drunkard, slanderer, or swindler will possess the kingdom of God.” So, those who sin sexually, worship idols, take part in adultery, sell their bodies, get drunk, rob people, and lie about others will not set foot in the kingdom of God. Does this surprise you? Fibbing stirs the same heavenly anger as adultery and aggravated assault. God views fudging on taxes the same way he views kneeling before idols. “The Lord hates those who tell lies but is pleased with those who keep their promises.” Proverbs 12:22. “Six things the Lord hates, seven are detestable to him: a proud eye, a false tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a mind given to forging wicked schemes, feet that run swiftly to do evil, a false witness telling a pack of lies, and one who sows strife between brothers.” Proverbs 6:16-19. “The arrogant will not stand in your presence; you hate all evildoers; you make an end of liars. The Lord abhors those who are violent and deceitful.” Psalm 5:5-6.

Prayers & Concerns

Fairview Center is....Prayerful! In this world today, I think everyone would agree with me that there is a lot of prayer needed. Do I hear an amen? Please continue to pray for our country and its leaders, our military and their families, those who struggle with poverty and the homeless, Christians under persecution, our state and local government leaders, the lonely and disheartened, our elderly, healthcare providers, and those who have not experienced the joy of knowing Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. During worship we have also been praying for a number of people. Please continue to pray for:

Those affected by the COVID virus; political and civil unrest in our country; those battling cancer-families & caregivers; students, parents, and school personnel; and those with unspoken concerns.

Please help us keep this prayer and concern list up-to-date. Please let us know of a misspelled name. Also, let us know if someone has returned to good health. We want this list to be accurate and current. Send information to: fairviewcenter@gmail.com Thank you!

“Why does God take such a hard line on dishonesty? One simple reason, dishonesty is absolutely contrary to God’s character. According to Hebrews 6:18, it is impossible for God to lie. It’s not that God will not lie or that he has chosen not to lie, God cannot lie. For God to lie is for a pig to fly. Titus echoes the same words as Hebrews: “God cannot lie.” Titus 1:2. God always speaks truth. When God makes a covenant, he keeps it. When God makes a statement, he means it. When God proclaims the truth, we can believe it. What God says is true. “Even if we are not faithful, God will still be faithful because he cannot be false to himself.” 2 Timothy 2:13.

Satan, on the other hand, finds it impossible to tell the truth. According to Jesus, the devil is “the father of lies,” John 8:44. Deceit was the first tool out of the devil’s bag of tricks. In the garden of Eden, Satan did not discourage Eve. Satan did not seduce her. He did not sneak up on her. Satan just lied to her. “God says you will die if you eat the fruit? You will not die.” Genesis 3:1-4. Liar, liar, pants on fire! Eve was tricked, the fruit was picked and the honesty of Eden is a distant memory. Daniel Webster said; “There is nothing as powerful as the truth and often nothing as strange.” At the end of our days all we can take with us to the grave is our integrity. Be like Jesus and have an honest heart.

Your fellow servant,

Pastor Mark

Peyton Martin had a great day on April 11, 2026 at the ICC Livestock Judging Contest both individually and as part of Team judging!

A BIG shout out to Jayden Kunkle too! He participated in the Solo and Ensemble Contest on Saturday, April 11, 2026 and scored very well in piano solo and was awarded woodwind “Best of the Day” for his saxophone solo!

Congratulations to Emma Green who was recognized with a national academic honor based on her achievements on AP® Exams and/or PSAT assessments.

Congratulations to all our student athletes who have been named WMOI/WRAM Athlete of the Week during the 2025-2026 school year!

Thank you Fairview Center Church

Dear Friends,

Thank you for investing in our community through Jamieson Community Center. Your donation of $150 will be used for our general fund. 2025 proved to be a challenging year for people in our community, with more than 1,000 families served by our pantry. Other programs saw similar increases. Because of people like you, no one was turned away.

Sincerely,

Nancy Mowen
Executive Director

A thank you received from MMWDC for all our items that were delivered on March 4th:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ at Fairview Center Church,

Your gift to Midwest Mission matters...maybe even more than you realize! Your recent donation of 16 Cover Them with Love Quilts, 31 receiving blankets, 167 baby wash cloths, 39 feminine pads, 33 waterproof bags, 2 twin sheet sets, 2 packages of gauze sponges, 8 onesies, 1 fleece jacket, and 8 short sleeved onesies to our ministry allows life changes to happen. We are reminded, especially right now, how much difference each person's contribution makes. We were able to send a shipment to Jamaica, only 3 days after Hurricane Melissa brought unprecedented devastation and catastrophic damage to those in her path.

Because you and others give to Midwest Mission, we are able to swiftly move into action when disasters hit. We know for those in Jamaica, and in other areas we serve, the help has to be ongoing. It is never a sprint, always a marathon. The devastation will take years of healing, helping and providing hope and empowerment. We can't always plan for disasters in advance, but God always knows the timing. He multiplies your gifts and allows us to steward them in the best ways possible to make the biggest impact today and tomorrow.

Your support is not a simple monetary gift; it is a vote of confidence in our mission to show God's love in practical ways and to partner together to turn resources into humanitarian aid. We cannot thank you enough for choosing to partner with Midwest Mission. We cannot do it without you! We are grateful for you!

Be Blessed,

Chantel Corrie, Executive Director

“And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need,
you will abound in every good work.”

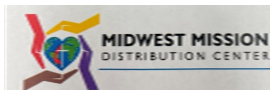

2 Corinthians 9:8

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Thank you for your generous gift! May God bless you as together we work to show His love as the hands, feet, and heart of Christ.

In His service,

Midwest Mission Family

Dear Fairview Center Church,

Thank you for allowing the Warren - Henderson Farm Bureau Women's Ag in the Classroom Committee to host our 4th Grade Ag Day on the church grounds. Our committee believes in educating youth about agriculture and we enjoy hosting this Ag Day in conjunction with the Prime Beef Festival. A special thanks to Stan and Pastor Mark who helped us set up and stick around for the day! We're so grateful for the space you provide us to that we're able to provide a day of agriculture education!

Thank you!

Ashlyn Quinn, W-HFB, Manager
