

CLEAN YOUR CLOSET

Have you ever entered the deep recesses of your closet only to discover clothing that is well past its time? The style is out or they no longer fit, indeed, we would be embarrassed to be caught wearing those outfits in public. Some have so much wear and tear that salvaging them even for rags may be questionable! Time for them to go into the trash and time for a wardrobe transformation.

All Christians experience a change in wardrobe! In fact, when we are baptized, we "put on Christ" (Gal. 3:27). Part of our charge is to "put on the armor of light" (Rom. 13:12). We even have access to God's armor (Eph. 6:10-20).

Colossians 3 gives a shocking list of those old clothes that aren't worth salvaging. Things from our old lives that not only need to be put off but put to death! Fornication, impurity, evil desires, greed, anger, wrath, malice, slander, abusive speech, lies, etc., all must be trashed (Col. 3:5-9).

Our new wardrobe as God's children is completely different! Colossians 3:12-14 gives us the replacement for all that we must put off. Our new selves are clothed with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, forbearance, and forgiveness.

Finally, love unites all our clothing together as a beautiful outfit. Love completes the ensemble of Christian character and ties everything together.

May we decide to have a closet full of the adornments of God!
