Stay The Course

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith;
2 Timothy 4:7

Staying the course doesn't mean today will be perfect or easy; it means deciding that your direction matters more than your current speed. The Apostle Paul wrote these words at the end of his life, viewing his journey not as a single burst of energy, but as a long-distance race requiring daily, steady steps. When you feel overwhelmed or tempted to rely entirely on your own strength, remember that God provides the daily grace needed to sustain you. Keeping the faith is simply choosing to trust Him with the next step, knowing that every small choice to honor Him builds the endurance needed to finish well.

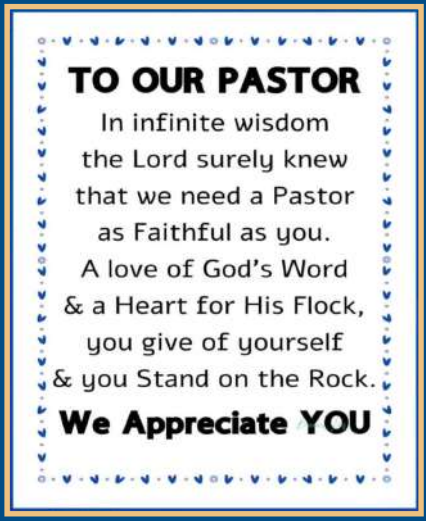

Identify one area where you feel weary or tempted to give up. Intentionally hand that worry over to God today, and commit to taking just the next right step in faith.

God, thank You for giving me the strength and purpose for this day. When I feel weary or tempted to rely entirely on my own power, remind me that Your grace is sufficient for me. Help me to lay down my worries and fix my eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of my faith.
Give me the endurance to take the next right step today, honoring You in the small, quiet moments as well as the big challenges. Protect my heart from discouragement and give me the focus to stay the course You have marked out for me. I trust You with my journey, knowing You will sustain me to the end.
In Jesus' name, Amen.
