A painting of a dark anchor suspended by a chain against a background of vibrant, swirling blue and green brushstrokes. The anchor is dark and metallic, with a crossbar and a curved fluke. It is suspended by a dark chain that extends from the top left. The background is composed of dynamic, expressive brushstrokes in various shades of blue and green, creating a sense of movement and depth. The overall style is painterly and evocative.

Ladies' Circles

The Cora Williams Circle will meet on Monday, September 14th at 2:00 PM in the T. Roe Scott Room. All ladies are welcomed to come kick off the new season. Our special guest speaker will be Collette Durrence who is a physical therapist at Optim Orthopedics. She has been there for 8 years. Having achieved her bachelor degree at GSU and an associates degree from South University, solving real world challenges is one part of her job opportunities. She will be sharing some exercises and helpful hints for maintaining our strength and stamina as we age. Please make every effort to attend as I feel it will be beneficial to us all. ~ Pat Price

The Mary Martha Circle will meet on Thursday, September 17th at 6:30 PM in the T. Roe Scott Room.
