

The Vanity of a Life of Indulgence (Eccl 2:1-11)

I. We are tempted to live for _____ . (2:1-10)

II. A life of self indulgence leads to an _____
_____. (2:11)

III. Rid your life of the idol of _____
_____.

A. You know you are living for pleasure if you get
_____ if your pleasure is
_____ with.

B. You know you are living for pleasure if a disproportionate amount of your
_____ or _____ is spent
on pleasure.

C. You know you are living for pleasure if you are _____ or
_____ about what you do for pleasure.

D. You know you are living for pleasure if your mind is _____ on whatever brings you
pleasure.

E. You know you are living for pleasure if you don't think you can _____ it.

F. You know you are living for pleasure if you
sacrifice _____ for it.

G. You know you are living for pleasure if your
_____ is based on it.

The Vanity of a Life of Indulgence (Eccl 2:1-11)

I. We are tempted to live for _____ . (2:1-10)

II. A life of self indulgence leads to an _____
_____. (2:11)

III. Rid your life of the idol of _____
_____.

A. You know you are living for pleasure if you get
_____ if your pleasure is
_____ with.

B. You know you are living for pleasure if a disproportionate amount of your
_____ or _____ is spent
on pleasure.

C. You know you are living for pleasure if you are
_____ or
_____ about what you do for pleasure.

D. You know you are living for pleasure if your mind is _____ on whatever brings you
pleasure.

E. You know you are living for pleasure if you don't think you can _____ it.

F. You know you are living for pleasure if you
sacrifice _____ for it.

G. You know you are living for pleasure if your
_____ is based on it.