Agape for Ben Lovell

Ben Lovell will be attending the Walk to Emmaus in Sidney this November 6th to 9th. As part of that weekend, participants receive cards and letters letting them know they are loved and cared about. Would you be willing to write a note to Ben? There are pens and cards available on the book table by the bulletin board (Coffee Bar area). You can include something you appreciate about Ben, a memory you have of him, share a Scripture or encouraging thought, etc. Please seal your finished card in and envelope and write "Ben Lovell, Pilgrim Agape" on the envelope and place it in the basket. Please do this before you leave church today. You are welcome to take your card home to work on it, but you need to get it to Pastor Tina by Saturday morning, November 8th at 9am for it to get to Ben on the weekend.

November Christian Book Club: "Let Earth Receive Her King" by Alastair Begg

Meeting Sunday, Nov. 30th at 3pm

Books: $10 (available in Coffee Bar area)

By the time we reach December, many schedules are so busy, it's hard to think about spiritually preparing for Advent and Christmas. We are going to read this Advent devotional book ahead of time, to help us make space in advance to have a Christ-focused Christmas. The book is in a daily format but you can read it however you choose and join us on 11/23 to discuss the whole book.

Description: Follow the story of God's Messiah from Genesis to Revelation. See how God prepared the world for Christ's first coming and how that wondrous gift was given; and look forward to Christ's future coming and how all things will be made new.

ALISTAIR BEGG served two churches in his native Scotland before answering the call in 1983 to become senior pastor at Parkside Church in suburban Cleveland, OH. A graduate of the London School of Theology, he has written several books and is heard daily on the national radio program Truth For Life.
