United Methodist Church

Service for the Lord's Day ~ November 2, 2025 ~ 10:15 a.m.

All Saints Sunday

All Saints' Day celebration has a long history in the worship life of the Christian Church. It began as a commemoration of the martyrs who had died for the faith, and it has since become a day when we honor and remember those who, in death, have joined the Church Triumphant, as well as the faithful saints of the present who serve Jesus Christ. Martin Luther held that all Christians are simultaneously sinner and saint—a sinner because of our rebellious nature, but a saint because of salvation in Jesus.

Today, by reading their names and by ringing a bell, we remember those of our congregation who have died during the past year. Following the reading of each name, family members and those who were blessed by that person's life and witness are invited to stand in remembrance and thanksgiving to God.

As we share in communion, you are welcome to come forward and light a candle in loving memory of someone who has shaped your life.

A professionally staffed nursery is located through the double doors on the west side (front left) of the sanctuary. Our nursery is available for children and infants through age 3. Restrooms are also located through the double doors on the west side (front left) of the sanctuary.

ENTRANCE

The Chiming of the Hour

The Words of Gathering & Invitation to Worship

The Rev. Harriet Bryan

The Prelude

“Prelude in C major, BWV 846”
J.S. Bach (1685-1750)

Dr. Bora Lee, Pianist

+The Call to Worship (+Indicates stand as your able)

Lucretia Campbell

Leader: We gather to give thanks for all the saints—
those who showed us how to live with faith and love.

People: We remember their courage and trust in God’s goodness.

Leader: In every generation, God invites us to grow in faith and be shaped by love.

All: Let us worship the One who calls us, forms us, and holds us in steadfast love.

+The Processional Hymn No. 711

“For All the Saints”

SINE NOMINE

The cross leads the procession as a reminder that Jesus Christ, the Word of God and savior of humanity, is at the center of our worship.

The acolytes light two candles on the altar to symbolize the dual nature of Jesus, fully human and fully divine.

+The Opening Prayer

Lucretia Campbell

Holy and loving God,
we thank you for the saints who have gone before us—
those who loved generously, served faithfully,
and trusted you through every season.
Shape us by their example,
that our faith may grow and our love may abound,
until God wipes away all of our tears. Amen.

PROCLAMATION AND RESPONSE

All Saints Day Litany

Revs. Bryan & Myers

Leader: We give thanks for the great cloud of witnesses who have gone before us—for those who loved us, taught us, and showed us what it means to follow Christ.
Their example calls us to faith, hope, and love.

People: We thank you, O God, for the saints who have gone before us.

Leader: We remember with gratitude the members of Madison Street United Methodist Church who have entered the Church Triumphant since last All Saints Sunday.

Alice Moseley Batson
Margaret “Peg” Joan Becher
Don Carlos Birdwell
Dan Burden
Mary Kathryn Lander Burden
JoAnne Caldwell

Stephanie Kay Channell
Margery Lee Bivens Drum
Gradie Sue Griffin
E. Harold Harris
Elizabeth Wright Weaks

People: We thank you, O God, for the saints who have gone before us.

Leader: We also remember before you all others—family members, friends, mentors, and loved ones—whose lives have shaped our own and who now rest in your eternal care.

(You are invited to speak their names aloud or hold them silently in your hearts.)

People: We thank you, O God, for the saints who have gone before us.

Leader: Eternal God, we give you thanks for all your servants who, having fought the good fight, have finished their race and now rest from their labor.

Grant that we may follow their example of steadfast faith and faithful love, that we too may join them in the fullness of your eternal love.

All: God of all generations, we give you thanks for those who have shown us your love and led us in your ways.

Keep us faithful until we, with all your saints,
stand in your presence and rejoice in your glory,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Prayer of Great Thanksgiving

Revs. Bryan & Myers

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor gives thanks, remembering God's acts of salvation.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven

We praise your name and join their unending hymn.:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The prayer continues, and the institution of the Lord's Supper is recalled.

In union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ had died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

The pastor invokes the Holy Spirit and then praises the Trinity.

The people respond; Amen.

“The Lord's Prayer”

Madison Street Choir

Music by Albert Malotte

(The words for “The Lord's Prayer” may be found in the Hymnal No. 895.)

The Sharing of the Bread and Cup

Our ushers will direct you to come down the center aisle and return to your seat by the outer aisles.

Gluten free elements are available at the station in the center. Waste stations are located at the base of the columns.

If you would like to be served where you are seated, please let an usher know as they pass by.

Today's communion offering will go to feeding ministries in our community.

Music During Communion

“In Remembrance of Me”

Madison Street Choir

Buryl Red (1936-2013)

In remembrance of Me eat this bread, In remembrance of Me drink this wine.

In remembrance of Me pray for the time when God's own will is done.

In remembrance of me heal the sick, In remembrance of me feed the poor.

In remembrance of me open the door and let your brother in.

Take, eat and be comforted. Drink and remember too

That this is my body and precious blood shed for you.

In remembrance of me search for truth, In remembrance of me always love.
In remembrance of me don't look above but in your heart,
Look in your heart for God. Do this in remembrance of Me.
