Service for the Lord's Day ~ February 1, 2026 ~ 10:15 a.m.

Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany

A professionally staffed nursery is located through the double doors on the west side (front left) of the sanctuary.
Our nursery is available for children and infants through age 3. Restrooms are also located through the double doors on the west side (front left) of the sanctuary.

ENTRANCE

The Chiming of the Hour

The Words of Gathering & Invitation to Worship

The Rev. Harriet Bryan

The Prelude

“Andantino”
Mauro Giuliani (1781-1829)

Colin Isotti, Guitar

+The Call to Worship (+Indicates stand as your able)

Lucretia Campbell

Leader: What does the Lord require of us?

People: To do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with God.

Leader: Christ blesses those who hunger for righteousness.

People: Christ calls us to build a new future.

+The Processional Hymn No. 580 “Lead On, O King Eternal”

LANCASHIRE

The cross leads the procession as a reminder that Jesus Christ, the Word of God and savior of humanity, is at the center of our worship.

The acolytes light two candles on the altar to symbolize the dual nature of Jesus, fully human and fully divine.

+The Opening Prayer of Confession

Lucretia Campbell

O God of justice and mercy, who calls us to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with you,
forgive us when we cling to fear, protect our comfort,
and shrink back from the world you promise.

Guide us into your future
and shape our hearts for generosity and courage,
so that we may join your work of healing and hope;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

+The Words of Assurance

Lucretia Campbell

Leader: Hear the good news:
God’s mercy is wider than our fear and deeper than our failure.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven, restored, and sent to live in God’s peace. Thanks be to God.

+The Passing of the Peace

The Act of Praise

“In This Very Room”
Ron Harris

Madison Street Choir

In this very room there's quite enough love for one like me,
And in this very room there's quite enough joy for one like me,
And there's quite enough hope and quite enough power
to chase away any gloom,
For Jesus, Lord Jesus ... is in this very room.

And in this very room there's quite enough love for all of us,
And in this very room there's quite enough joy for all of us,
And there's quite enough hope and quite enough power
to chase away any gloom,
For Jesus, Lord Jesus ... is in this very room.

In this very room there's quite enough love for all the world,
And in this very room there's quite enough joy for all the world,
And there's quite enough hope and quite enough power
to chase away any gloom,
For Jesus, Lord Jesus ... is in this very room.

+Hymn No. 428

“For the Healing of the Nations”

CWM RHONDDA

The Sermon

“Imagine Together: Everything Counts”

Rev. Bryan

Questions to Consider

Children: Where do you see someone being kind or fair today?
What is one small thing you can share to help someone else?
How can we take one small step to love others like Jesus does?

Youth: Where do you notice unfairness or hurt that makes you want to act?
What gifts—time, skills, or resources—do you have that could help others?
What is one faithful step you could take this week, even if it feels small?

Adults: Where do we see justice, kindness, or humility taking shape in our shared life right now?
What has God already placed in our hands that we are being invited to offer—together?
How might our shared generosity help shape a future that blesses people we may never meet?

+The Affirmation of Faith No. 881 “The Apostles’ Creed”

The Rev. Dr. Tim Sharp

The Prayers of the People

Rev. Sharp

If you have a prayer request to share with our pastors, please email us at prayer@madisonstreetumc.org or fill out a prayer card found in the R.O.W. books and place in the offering plate.

Christian Petzhold (1677-1733)

+The Doxology No. 94

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Prayer of Great Thanksgiving

Rev. Bryan

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor gives thanks, remembering God's acts of salvation.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven

We praise your name and join their unending hymn.:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The prayer continues, and the institution of the Lord's Supper is recalled.

In union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ had died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

The pastor invokes the Holy Spirit and then praises the Trinity.

The people respond; Amen.

The Lord's Prayer No. 895

The Sharing of the Bread and Cup

Our ushers will direct you to come down the center aisle and return to your seat by the outer aisles.

Gluten free elements are available at the station in the center. Waste stations are located at the base of the columns.

If you would like to be served where you are seated, please let an usher know as they pass by.

Today's Communion offering will support the Wesley Foundations at Tennessee State University and Fisk University.

During Black History Month, we give thanks for the witness of Black Christians and invest in campus ministries at historically Black universities, supporting students as they grow in faith, leadership, and service.

During communion, you are invited to bring forward your commitment card.

This is an act of trust—an offering of what we have, rooted in the confidence that God is leading us forward.
