The Chiming of the Hour

The Words of Gathering & Invitation to Worship

The Rev. Harriet Bryan

The Prelude

“Hymn to the Fallen” (from Saving Private Ryan) Jeffrey Thomas, Organist
John Williams

+The Call to Worship (+Indicates stand as you're able)

Lucretia Campbell

Leader: The earth is the Lord's, and all that is in it;
the world, and those who dwell therein.

People: We gather to worship the God who reigns over every nation and every generation.

Leader: As our nation marks two hundred and fifty years, we give thanks for the freedoms we enjoy and for God's faithfulness through the generations.

People: We remember that every good and perfect gift comes from God.

Leader: We come to worship the Lord of history, who judges with justice, defends the weak, and calls all people to repentance and hope.

People: We seek first the kingdom of God, praying that our lives and our nation may reflect God's truth, mercy, and peace.

+The Processional Hymn “Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory”

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Madison Street Choir

Velma Coleridge Taylor, Soprano

The cross leads the procession as a reminder that Jesus Christ, the Word of God and savior of humanity, is at the center of our worship.

The acolytes light two candles on the altar to symbolize the dual nature of Jesus, fully human and fully divine.

(Congregation will join in singing the final refrain.)

Glory, glory, hallelujah! Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah! His truth is marching on.

+The Affirmation of Faith No. 886

“The World Methodist Social Affirmation”

Lucretia Campbell

+ The Words of Assurance

Leader: God is patient, merciful, and faithful.

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven and invited again into lives shaped by trust, wisdom, and hope.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Prayer of Great Thanksgiving

Rev. Bryan

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor gives thanks, remembering God's acts of salvation.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven

We praise your name and join their unending hymn.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The prayer continues, and the institution of the Lord's Supper is recalled.

In union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ had died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

The pastor invokes the Holy Spirit and then praises the Trinity.

The people respond; Amen.

The Lord's Prayer No. 895

The Sharing of the Bread and Cup

Our ushers will direct you to come down the center aisle and return to your seat by the outer aisles.

Gluten free elements are available at the station in the center. Waste stations are located at the base of the columns.

If you would like to be served where you are seated, please let an usher know as they pass by.

Today's communion offering supports Peace with Justice Ministries. Through this ministry, United Methodists work to address the root causes of poverty, violence, and injustice through efforts such as combating human trafficking, supporting survivors of domestic violence, and advocating for criminal justice reform.

Your gifts help promote peace, dignity, and opportunity in communities near and far.

“The Star–Spangled Banner”

Jeffrey Thomas, Organist

O say, can you see,
By the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars
Through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched,
Were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare,
The bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there;
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

+The Postlude

“La Rejouissance” from Music for the Royal Fireworks
G.F. Handel (1685–1795)

Robert Waugh, Trumpet

The acolytes lead us into the world carrying the light of Christ as a reminder that God sends each of us into the world to share Christ's light with others.

*The flowers on the altar are given to the glory of God by Charlise and John Halliburton celebrating our country.
God bless America.*
