The Chiming of the Hour

The Words of Gathering & Invitation to Worship

The Rev. Harriet Bryan

The Prelude

“Thanks be to Thee”

G.F. Handel

Jeffrey Thomas, Organist

+The Call to Worship (+Indicates stand as you're able)

Lucretia Campbell

Leader: Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

People: We give thanks for the saints who have gone before us.

Leader: God is making all things new.

People: With the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we worship God.

+The Processional Hymn No. 711 “For All the Saints”

SINE NOMINE

The cross leads the procession as a reminder that Jesus Christ, the Word of God and savior of humanity, is at the center of our worship.

The acolytes light two candles on the altar to symbolize the dual nature of Jesus, fully human and fully divine.

+The Opening Prayer of Confession

Lucretia Campbell

Merciful God,

you have made us one body in Christ,

yet we confess how readily we measure lives by achievement,
recognition, and power.

We overlook quiet faithfulness

and turn away from those who mourn.

We forget that every life is held in your love.

Forgive us, and renew our hope.

Make us merciful as you are merciful,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

+The Words of Assurance

Lucretia Campbell

Hear the promise of God: “I am making all things new.”

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven and welcomed into God's life.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

+The Passing of the Peace

The Act of Praise

“Laud We the Name” from Cantata #142

Madison Street Choir

J.S. Bach (1685-1750)

Laud we the name of God most holy. Praise we God's name most holy.

Praise with a mighty anthem. Let God's be the honor, the honor and thanks.

PROCLAMATION AND RESPONSE

All Saints Day Litany

Revs. Bryan & Myers

Leader: We give thanks for the great cloud of witnesses who have gone before us—for those who loved us, taught us, and showed us what it means to follow Christ.

Their example calls us to faith, hope, and love.

People: We thank you, O God, for the saints who have gone before us.

Leader: We remember with gratitude the members of Madison Street United Methodist Church who have entered the Church Triumphant since last All Saints Sunday.

Mary Nell Hodges Rankin

Jerry Wayne White

Lena Norris Orgain

Marion Bruno Gossett

Nancy Brockmeier Irby

Alice JoAnn Reeves Procopio

Karen Palmer Scholle

Diane Deputy Fulbright

Linda Cooper Hazlett

Frances Ellen Prince Davis

Lucy Katherine Howell McCutchen

Leader: We lift these names in thanksgiving to you, Lord.

People: We thank you, O God, for the saints who have gone before us.

Leader: We also remember before you all others—family members, friends, mentors, and loved ones—whose lives have shaped our own and who now rest in your eternal care.

(You are invited to speak their names aloud or hold them silently in your hearts.)

Leader: We lift these names in thanksgiving to you, Lord.

People: We thank you, O God, for the saints who have gone before us.

Leader: Eternal God, we give you thanks for all your servants who, having fought the good fight, have finished their race and now rest from their labor.

Grant that we may follow their example of steadfast faith and faithful love, that we too may join them in the fullness of your eternal love.

All: God of all generations, we give you thanks for those who have shown us your love and led us in your ways.

Keep us faithful until we, with all your saints,
stand in your presence and rejoice in your glory,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Offering of Our Gifts to God

The Offertory

“Oh, What a Beautiful City”

African-American Spiritual

Emma Christian and Myles, Duet

Oh! What a beautiful city! Twelve gates to the city. Hallelu!

Three gates in-a de east, Three gates in-a de west,
Three gates in-a de north, Three gates in-a de south.
Making it twelve gates to de city. Hallelu!

My Lord built-a dat city, Said it was jus-a fo' square
Wanted all-a you sinners, To meet Him in-a de air.
Cause He built twelve gates-a to city, Hallelu!

Who are all-a those children, All dressed up in white?
They must be the children of the Israelites.
'Cause He built twelve gates-a to city. Hallelu!

Who are all-a those children all dressed up a red?
They must be the children that Moses led.
The Lord built twelve gates-a to city, Hallelu!

When I get to Heaven I'm gonna sing an shout.
Ain't nobody up there gonna take me out.
'Cause He built twelve gates-a to city, Hallelu!

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Prayer of Great Thanksgiving

Revs. Bryan & Myers

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor gives thanks, remembering God's acts of salvation.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven

We praise your name and join their unending hymn.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The prayer continues, and the institution of the Lord's Supper is recalled.

In union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ had died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

The pastor invokes the Holy Spirit and then praises the Trinity.

The people respond; Amen.

The Lord's Prayer No. 895

The Sharing of the Bread and Cup

Our ushers will direct you to come down the center aisle and return to your seat by the outer aisles.

Gluten free elements are available at the station in the center. Waste stations are located at the base of the columns.

If you would like to be served where you are seated, please let an usher know as they pass by.

Today's communion offering will support the Wesley Foundation at Austin Peay State University, our United Methodist campus ministry. Wesley is hosting its "Gather at the Table" fundraising dinner on Saturday, November 7, from 6–8 p.m. at Hilldale United Methodist Church. If you are unable to attend, today's offering provides another way to support this ministry as it helps students grow in faith, build community, and serve others.
