so that we may walk in your vision

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Prayer of Great Thanksgiving

Rev. Bryan

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor gives thanks, remembering God's acts of salvation.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven

We praise your name and join their unending hymn.:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The prayer continues, and the institution of the Lord's Supper is recalled.

In union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ had died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

The pastor invokes the Holy Spirit and then praises the Trinity.

The people respond; Amen.

The Lord's Prayer No. 895

The Sharing of the Bread and Cup

Our ushers will direct you to come down the center aisle and return to your seat by the outer aisles.

Gluten free elements are available at the station in the center. Waste stations are located at the base of the columns.

If you would like to be served where you are seated, please let an usher know as they pass by.

Today's communion offering supports the United Methodist Church's Human Relations Day, a special Sunday across our denomination, focused on fostering better relationships and supporting community and youth outreach. As we remember and give thanks for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., we take up a special offering to help bring his vision of a "beloved community" to life. Your gifts support important programs like Community Developers, United Methodist Voluntary Services, and Youth Offender Rehabilitation.

Please pick up a star word from the altar rail before returning to your seat. Selecting a star word for the coming year is a way to celebrate Epiphany. The idea is that this word might function as a sign for us, if we will allow ourselves to be guided by this word, just as the Magi were guided by the star.

Prayer During Communion (a contemporary interpretation of John Wesley's Covenant Prayer by The Rev. Jeremy Smith)

I am not my own self-made, self-reliant human being.

In truth, O God, I am Yours.

Make me into what You will.

Make me a neighbor with those whom You will.

Guide me on the easy path for You.

Guide me on the rocky road for You.

Whether I am to step up for You or step aside for You;

Whether I am to be lifted high for You or brought low for You;
Whether I become full or empty, with all things or with nothing;
I give all that I have and all that I am for You.
So be it.
And may I always remember that you, O God, and I belong to each other. Amen.

A Prayer for the New Year

Creative God, you make all things new in heaven and on earth.
We come to you in a new year with new desires and old fears,
new decisions and old controversies,
new dreams and old weaknesses.
Because you are a God of hope,
we know that you create all the possibilities of the future.
Because you are a God of love,
we know that you accept all the mistakes of the past.
Because you are the God of our faith,
we enter your gates with thanksgiving and praise,
we come into your presence with gladness and a joyful noise,
and we serve and bless you. Amen.

Raise Your Voice! Children's Choirs at Madison Street

Madison Street United Methodist Church is thrilled to launch an exciting new Children's Choir Program for our church and wider community! Beginning Wednesday, January 21, children will gather weekly from 6:00–6:45 pm to sing, learn, and grow through music in a joyful, nurturing environment led by professionally trained musicians and music educators.

Our choirs are designed for children at every stage, including Preschool (age 3) through Grade 1, Grades 2–5, and Grades 6–8. Through age-appropriate rehearsals, children will develop healthy vocal skills, musical literacy, confidence, teamwork, and a love for worship and the arts.

Each Wednesday evening begins with a free dinner for participating children at 5:30 pm, with a low-cost dinner option available for adults. While children rehearse, adults may participate in church activities or enjoy a quiet space to work or wait.

The children's choir program is directed by Melody Fish, Tim Sharp, Conrad Edington, with additional leadership and coordination provided by Music Academy Director Robbin Johnston.

Parents who would like to enroll or re-enroll their children are invited to scan the QR code below to complete a quick interest survey. Additional details will be shared in January.
