+The Call to Worship (+Indicates stand as your able)

Lucretia Campbell

Leader: God calls us to be salt for the earth.

People: May our lives bring out the goodness God has placed in the world.

Leader: God calls us to be light for the world.

People: May our witness shine with grace, justice, and hope.

+The Processional Hymn No. 428 “For the Healing of the Nations”

CWM RHONDDA

The cross leads the procession as a reminder that Jesus Christ, the Word of God and savior of humanity, is at the center of our worship.

The acolytes light two candles on the altar to symbolize the dual nature of Jesus, fully human and fully divine.

The Call to Prayer

“If My People”
Jimmy Owens

Madison Street Choir

If My people which are called by My name shall humble themselves, and pray;
If My people which are called by My name shall seek My face and turn from their wicked ways;
Then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin, and heal their land.

+The Opening Prayer of Confession

Lucretia Campbell

Holy God,
you send light into every shadow
and healing into every broken place.

Yet we confess that we do not always live as your salt and your light.

We settle for safety instead of courage.

We withhold compassion when love would cost us.

We grow comfortable with shadows
and hesitant to bear your healing into the world.

Forgive us, O God.

Strengthen our witness where it has grown weak.

Deepen our compassion where it has grown thin.

Shape us again into a community that reflects your love,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

+The Words of Assurance

Lucretia Campbell

Leader: Hear the good news: in Jesus Christ,
God's light overcomes every shadow,
God's healing restores what is broken,
and you are forgiven.

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God.

The Sermon

“Imagine Together: Being Salt and Light”

Rev. Bryan

Questions to Consider

Where is God inviting me to live my faith more publicly and generously?

How can our church become salt and light in ways our community can genuinely see and feel?

What shared practices of generosity might help us embody God's hope together?

The Prayers of the People

Rev. Sharp

If you have a prayer request to share with our pastors, please email us at prayer@madisonstreetumc.org or fill out a prayer card found in the R.O.W. books and place in the offering plate.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Prayer of Great Thanksgiving

Rev. Bryan

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor gives thanks, remembering God's acts of salvation.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven

We praise your name and join their unending hymn.:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The prayer continues, and the institution of the Lord's Supper is recalled.

In union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ had died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

The pastor invokes the Holy Spirit and then praises the Trinity.

The people respond; Amen.

The Lord's Prayer No. 895

The Sharing of the Bread and Cup

Our ushers will direct you to come down the center aisle and return to your seat by the outer aisles.

Gluten free elements are available at the station in the center. Waste stations are located at the base of the columns.

If you would like to be served where you are seated, please let an usher know as they pass by.

Today's Communion offering will support the Wesley Foundations at Tennessee State University and Fisk University.

During Black History Month, we give thanks for the witness of Black Christians and invest in campus ministries at historically Black universities, supporting students as they grow in faith, leadership, and service.

During communion, you are invited to bring forward your commitment card.

This is an act of trust—an offering of what we have, rooted in the confidence that God is leading us forward.
