TRINITY NEWS

Pastor Steve Wiechman

My Trinity Family,

On the last Sunday of January we heard this from the Gospel of Mark:

“The people were amazed at Jesus’ teaching, because he taught them as one who had authority, not as the teachers of the law.”

As we made our way through Mark 1, 2, and 3 we saw that Jesus was constantly saying and doing new things with authority that 1) changed people’s lives and 2) made some people angry. In a short matter of time, crowds began gathering to come to Jesus to receive healing, and an inner group was growing who was receiving his words of life.

I’ve been at Trinity now for 19 months, the last 13 as your pastor. It is my honor to be a part of your lives and especially to share together in Jesus’ presence and his promises with you. Because we are a small congregation (some of you may not know that I am part time here and have another part time job), we really have two main ways we are meeting with Jesus as his people here at Trinity: Worship and Discipleship Hour (what we used to Call Sunday School).

I would love for more of our Trinity family to participate in our Discipleship Hour. Maybe you’ve been scared because you don’t know the Bible very well. That’s okay, this is where we grow in that, and there is no shame. Maybe you feel like you don’t fit with the other people very well. That can be understandable. However, Jesus is great at forming eclectic groups of people into his disciples walking and growing together.

I want us to be “amazed” together as Jesus has more and more authority in our lives. Church can be more than just a place to go on Sunday morning. It can be more than a group of people I am comfortable around and enjoy. It can even be more than a place where I serve and help. It can be a place where Jesus meets you every week and is transforming you and empowering you and weaving us together in unity.

I hope you will consider joining us for Adult Discipleship from 9-10am, as well as talking to Joanna Baafour or Julie Hausler if you are interested in leading or helping in one of our student classes.

Love y’all, Pastor Steve
