On October 16-17, we will have Fall Pictures so we can capture the precious smiles of your little ones. If you have not done so yet, please make sure to scan the QR code on the poster in the foyer to register for pictures. This does not obligate you to purchase anything but your child's picture cannot be taken without registration. Our nursery and rooms 111, 113, 115, & 117 will take pictures on Thursday, October 16, as well as any sibling pictures on this day. On Friday, October 17, we will take pictures of room 119, K2 and K3 classes and any make up pictures or redo pictures that are needed. Your child will come home with a reminder notice the night before their pictures. The deadline to register is October 13.

Please plan to join us for our 4th annual all free Tailgate Together Party for all our Church, School, and Child Development Center. Pick up your child and plan to stay for dinner, games, door prizes and fun. Please wear your favorite team shirt and hang out with us.

Children may wear a "HOD-SCARY" (no witches, ghosts, or goblins) costume if desired!

clothed with strength & dignity ✨
and she laughs
without fear of the future
Proverbs 31:25

This verse encourages us to find confidence and joy in the future by "clothing" ourselves in strength and dignity through Christ, which enables us to laugh without fear at any future challenges we may face. We can know that our God is in control and our hope is in the Lord.

PROGRESS YOU MAY NOT SEE

09/15/2025 by Heidi (ABC Jesus Loves Me)

I remember oh so well. At the age of four, Peanut wanted what he wanted— and he was ready to test every limit to see if he could get it. Lying on the floor in protest? Worth a try. Yelling and stomping? Also worth testing. He just wanted to make sure that our boundaries were firm and that he could trust me to be consistent.

But Peanut isn't the only one who has tried this. All four of our kids had their moments of pushing back, questioning the rules, and seeing what happens when they rebelled.

Several years ago, Bubs brought home a simple phrase from church that stuck with us:

"You get what you get, and you don't throw a fit."

It became a mealtime mantra — and then an everyday reminder. Sweet Pea picked it up and repeated it often to her brothers, and now years later, the phrase still pops up in our home. I have a feeling this little saying will be passed down to our grandchildren one day.

KIDS ARE LISTENING

Why do I walk down memory lane? Even when it feels like nothing is sinking in, even when the day-to-day grind of training and teaching seems pointless, the words we speak are planting seeds.

I often got discouraged in the endless cycle of cleaning, cooking, training, and correcting. It felt like nothing was changing and that I was failing at teaching my kids about Jesus and His character.

But then, I'd overhear one sibling reminding another, "You get what you get, and you don't throw a fit." They may not have been applying it perfectly, but they were learning — and that is progress.
