Are you interested in taking your Biblical teaching to the next level? Have you ever considered preaching a sermon? This summer Pastor Matt will be offering a series of 8 classes focusing on how to prepare and deliver great Biblical Sermons and Bible studies. Seeing as it is being offered during the summer months, the class schedule will be very flexible, and can be individually based. This class is open to everyone. If you are interested, please talk to Pastor Matt.

For the Spring and Summer we will have an irregular schedule for Pickle-Ball. We will send out an email when we will be playing or if you would like to play call the church office to see if the gym is available.

Thank you for the flower surveys returned. It seems that everyone enjoys the pots by the front doors. The majority of people indicated they prefer planted flowers in the area by the light pole so we will continue in this way this year. The pots by the door will be determined by the timing of the remodel work. We do not want the pots in the way of the construction traffic through the front doors. Thanks, Cheryl Schneider
