

Read to be obedient -Read for understanding –

- Read for knowledge –
- Seeing how a passage fits into Scripture –
- Meditating on how it relates to our world

Read to do something about it.

- James 1:22
- O_____ is an Evidence of our L_____ for God John 14:15; I John 5:3

The Surest way to know W_____ to do, is to R_____ what He has told you!

Level 5 reading – C_____ level

Reading to A_____ me

Seeking to become O_____

Have to ask a new set of questions:

- > What do You want me to do God?
- > How am I supposed to act? Think? Talk?

Some are Easy and Obvious –

James 4:17

Some are not direct statements – But easy to apply

Ga. 2:10

I Corinthians 10:11

Some are deeply encapsulated in context or theology...

Gal. 2:11-13 – What is the Central Idea of the Text?

- > Their world to ours –
- > Other ways that plays out today? –
- > Read recognizing the situation from different people's perspective w/in the story

Back to the Text: Gal. 2:14-21 –

What: “Justify” – to declare R_____

Who does the justifying?

Lk. 10:29

Lk. 16:15

Rom. 8:33

So Biblical Justification is = God's declaration that we are Right

How do we get justified?

Rom. 3:24
 Rom. 4:5
 Rom. 3:20
 Rom. 3:28
 Rom. 4:2
 Jas. 2:21 -25

When in doubt, the first thing to do is to check the context...

James 2:12 - 20

Paul – talking about works of the L_____

James – talking about works done out of F_____

What are the results of Justification?

I Cor. 6:11
 Rom. 5:1
 Titus 3:7

So, We are...

NOT justified by =

We are justified by =

Apply- How would a person try to be justified by works of the law today?

- How are you trying to get into heaven?
- How are your works showing you have faith?

3 Quick points

- 1) Remember knowledge of Right & Wrong is only ½ the game
- 2) Be honest enough to be careful – we tend to celebrate specks and ignore logs
- 3) Allow the Word to be living and active and sharp in your life... Let it dissect you.
