Hope for the Heart : The Five Solas*2 Pet.3:16*Eph.2:8*1 Cor.5:21,10:31*1 Tim2:5*Acts4:12

The Reformation spurred a revival to restore the original essentials of Salvation that built the early church in the first century. A manifesto of Latin phrases or slogans was formed by spiritual leaders: 1)Sola Scriptura- 'Scripture Alone' presented the Bible as the absolute source of Truth. It is God-breathed through the Holy Spirit for training us in right living. In a courtroom, the Bible is used to extract a promise to tell the truth yet in our culture, truth is relative, subject to opinion. God's Word is an anchor to tie us to genuine reality.

2)Sola Fide- 'Faith Alone' 3)Sola Gratia 'Grace Alone' Salvation is a gift from God received by faith apart from works. There is nothing we can do to earn it. Our sins were borne by Christ & he covers us with his righteousness when we believe.4)Solus Christus-'Christ Alone' Jesus is the one & only mediator before God-the name that saves us from our sin-his perfect sacrifice paid the price in full. Jesus is the friend of sinners! Every knee will someday bow before him. 5)Soli Deo Gloria- 'To the Glory of God Alone' This is why we were created-to glorify God & love him forever! Whatever we do in life, our highest dream should be to glorify God. This, above all, should be our response to God's great love. As we live here on earth, we cannot even imagine what a glory it will be when we get to heaven. May we revive our hearts to believe & live out the principles of real Christianity in the Five Solas.
