December 31st, 2025 / 7:00 pm

All are welcome to this family friendly New Year's Eve Party, but children grade 6 and under need to be accompanied by an adult. We will welcome the new year with reflection, worship, and prayer.

Bring a favorite food to share!

Dear Church Family,
Merry Christmas! God continues to bless us richly here as a church body. One of the great blessings we have is our Pastoral Staff and their families. We understand that it is only natural to want to bless our Pastors with a Christmas gift of some sort. If you choose to do this with a gift of money, we must remind you that we as a church organization are not allowed by Federal Tax Law to provide tax deductible gifts to specific individuals. As a result, similar to the past few years the Church will not be giving a collective gift either from a special love offering or from a fund to our Pastoral Staff. Instead, if you want to give a gift to Pastor Matt Stacey, Pastor Josh Anderson, and/or Pastor Jackson Standafer you will need to do that as an individual or family separate from the church.

If you have further questions, please talk with any of the Deacon Board Members.

Thank you and Merry Christmas!

Sincerely,

The Deacon Board of First Baptist Church, Long Prairie
