Ever Thought about Becoming a Stephen Minister? Contact Denise Biddinger, 301-788-9208 / mahjah88@gmail.com or Roger Vincent, roger_vincent@myactv.net.

Stephen Ministers are there:

- after the last child honks the horn & drives away
- after your family/friends have heard it all and you still need to talk
- after the funeral and you're flooded with emotion
- after your life switches to a new chapter, you're alone and drifting.

From the Pastor...

The year 2020 has been the most challenging one in my lifetime. Covid-19 continues to be an issue for the physical health of our country along with the divided opinions on the best way forward. In Maryland we seem to be holding new cases down at this point, but many places in America are experiencing a resurgence in cases. In addition to this, there is much unrest among many over the issues of equality and fair treatment for people of color. Those who serve in Law Enforcement are also under much pressure due to the terrible actions of those within their own ranks. America needs the prayer of God's people.

This weekend we celebrate the birth of our nation. In my opinion, we are still blessed to live in the greatest country anywhere. Our nation is not perfect by any means. Recently, there seems to be more controversy than ever. I am sure that you are aware of all the challenges that have come before us in recent days. Yet, our freedoms remind us that our voice is not the only voice. Regardless of where you stand on any of these issues, remember that kindness, grace and love are always in order. You can be right on an issue and wrong in attitude and spirit. Our goal ought always to be to point others to Jesus. We may not agree with a political issue or disagree with what we consider a moral point, but let the main thing always be the main thing. And, the main thing is Jesus.

Dear Lord, help our nation in this hour of need. May your people be agents of peace and reconciliation and love while standing for your Truth. Amen.

I'm thankful for you all.

Bro. Mike

Meet our Missionary: Katie Mayne

Check monthly newsletter posted in foyer for how lives are changing!

Katie served as a missionary in Myanmar teaching at International Calvary Theological Seminary. As with any teacher, her weeks were filled with teaching and prepping lessons. Katie has been blessed to serve there and says "it has been awesome seeing the Lord work in my life and the lives of my students. Thank you for your many prayers and support! I really appreciate all of you and thank God for sending me so many people who love and care about me and also love and care about the great commission (Matthew 28-18-20). Please pray for the Christian teachers and students in Myanmar to have boldness to proclaim the gospel and for receptive hearts." She is currently back home to raise funds to go to the mission field again and is working with our youth.
