

Dear Prayer Warriors,

July – Aug. 2025

So many times I have heard people say, “Door to door visitation doesn’t work for me”. They only wanted to get out of our Lord’s command to take the Gospel to every creature. They say it’s embarrassing or too hot or they don’t know if they’ll be bothering people... and many other excuses. But I can tell you for sure that you may be the answer to someone’s prayers when you obey God’s command to go! Here is one such example.

A house with 5 big dogs outside its fence was skipped by a group of our ladies during visitation because it scared them. Plus a large “NO TRESPASSING” sign was posted by the open gate to the house. The Lord was leading me with a need to go to that house. We walked past all the outside dogs, the “No Trespassing” sign and the 11 puppies inside the yard and I knocked on the door. A surprised little girl answered the door and called for her mother to come. When I introduced ourselves, the mother started sobbing. It concerned me as her 3 children all crowded around her and she called for her husband. I explained that we wanted to get to know all our neighbors and pray for them. I told them, “We were from down the street at the Baptist Church”. The crying mother begged us to come in. That’s when I noticed her tears were flowing down a smiling face. She explained that times had been rough lately and they didn’t know what they were going to do. Both she and her husband had lost their jobs and were unable to find new ones. They were almost out of food and their rent and car payment were due with no money. She shared that she had just been praying to God, pleading that He would help them and we showed up at her door. That’s when I noticed her husband had a shocked and disbelieving look on his face and said “Wow! You’re here”. Looking at her husband she reminded him, “No one ever comes to our door and knocks. They always call out from the open gate fearing our dogs.” That’s when I explained that I felt God urgently wanting me to visit them today. I wanted to start home Bible studies with them and I asked if I could come back in about an hour. By the smell of things, they were about to eat dinner and I wanted to give them time to finish. They agreed and as we walked out the mother pulled me aside and admitted that she was the only Christian in her family. We were the answer to her prayers and her family saw it! If nothing else happens she asked us to please pray that her husband would get saved. I told her we would be back in about an hour after they were done eating.

After buying some groceries, my partner and I returned to their home. They greeted us with even more tears of appreciation plus a plate of fried noodles. As we were eating, the husband admitted that God must have heard his wife’s prayers and was willing to do the Bible studies with us to learn about salvation. We started our first Bible study with the “Good Test” and gave him a Bible with homework to do before we returned. By the time I finished the second Bible study “How bad do you have to be to go to Hell”, every family member was deeply convicted and asked to pray to get saved. Praise the Lord! Please pray for their Spiritual growth and faithfulness. God has already given TJ (the dad) a new job and Micah (the mom) several more answers to prayer! And the whole family is seeing God work in their lives. This makes all we do worth it! My silent partner was astounded with the hunger the De Leon family showed. He said it’s like nothing he’d ever seen before.

This leads me to my PRAYER REQUESTS: 1) Pray that all of our New Christians grow in their faith. 2) All our church brethren here in Saipan start praying and believing that God will lead them to hungry people who want to know the TRUTH of Salvation. 3) That people don’t act shocked when God answers prayers.
