

Philippians 2:12-18
Finding Joy in God's Use of Us

Big Question: How does God's continued work in us bring joy to us and other believers?

1. _____ is the outworking of Salvation (12-13)

- We should not obey because of the eyes of others.
- Once saved, God continues to work in us for His purpose, seen in our obedience.
- It follows the example of Christ (8).

2. We stand in _____ to the world (14-15)

- No grumbling or arguing (In contrast to the Israelites in the wilderness).
- We should look like God in a world that does not.
- We shine in a dark world

3. _____ are called to hold firm to the word of life (16-18)

- We carry on what was poured into us.
- We are part of God's work in this generation.
