Entering the Kingdom of God Mark 10:23-31

- I. Salvation is a _____ impossibility:
- A. Though all mankind is commanded to seek God for salvation—_____.
 - B. All mankind hangs on to something that he tries to drag through the narrow gate, thus _____ passage.
 - C. By good works salvation cannot be obtained.
- II. Salvation is a _____ work in which God’s Spirit enables us to see our utter sinfulness and lostness before a holy God—and then in faith to cry out to Christ, saying, “God be merciful to me, a sinner!”
- III. Those who are saved—entering the kingdom of God—will face persecutions in this world...
- A. Loss of _____ of family and loved ones
 - B. Disrespect and ridicule from the _____
 - C. _____ hardship because of their testimony
 - D. But they will also inherit a larger loving _____, receive divine protection in the world, and have opened to them the whole world as resources for their use and enjoyment
 - E. And they will have eternal life in the _____.
