Critical Juncture

Luke 24:13-35

- I. Many of our discouragements as believers come because we have _____ expectations.
- II. Many of our discouragements as believers come because we are trying to get God to work with _____, rather than just getting on board with His.
- III. Being _____ with God's Word will always lead to disappointment and to turning away from God.
- IV. This only leads to greater blindness and waywardness.
- V. God in His mercy comes close to _____ back to Him.
- VI. Critical Juncture: There comes a point when you have a decision to make—do a _____ back to God or stay on the road of defeat?
- VII. If you pass on the Critical Juncture—you will enter a period of greater despair, but if you u-turn back to God's way—you will have greater _____!
