Jesus' Training of the Twelve, Part 2 (Mark 6:45-56)

- I. Realize that our Lord is constantly working at multiple _____—something that we must appreciate and duplicate it in our own lives.
- II. Though Christ is not _____ here—it does not mean He is less aware, less concerned, actually far, or less powerful to help (Phil. 4:5).
- III. Christ is always testing and exercising our _____ that it may grow and mature for greater effectiveness.
- IV. Christ desires the believer's responses to both happy circumstances and hard circumstances to be like His—always guided by Truth.
 - A. In happy circumstances the believer must not abandon his reliance on and commitment to _____ guidance.
 - B. The believer's response to hard times is not to be one of doubt, resentment, panic, and despair, but rather faith, trust, _____, and confidence.
- V. As the believer submits to Christ's training plan he will experience greater _____, greater thankfulness, and greater effectiveness.
